Heating Boilers

Steam and Hot Water

The peculiar fact about the new "Crawford" and "Walker" heating boilers is that they heat where others fail. They are a gilt-edge investment for those who want heat and plenty of it at the minimum of expense and care. The "Heat Ribs" cast on the interiors of these boilers are found in no others.

CLAFLIN GUARD NOTES

A team from this Company won the Regimental Championship in 1903 under the leadership of Capt. "Sergeant" John Ryan, and have the trophy, which is a heavily framed military picture, hung up in the Armory. The Fifth Regiment will go to Washington, D. C. in 1909 to participate in the inaugural parade in March. In the meantime a number of entertainments will be held so as to raise the necessary money to defray the expenses. A two days' stay will also be made in Baltimore, Md., when the 5th Maryland will entertain. The new full dress uniforms are to be received shortly, also the new Springfield rifle such as used by the U. S. Army. The next thing should be the new Armory, which also seems to be an assured thing this year.

KNIGHTS OF KING ARTHUR

A union convence of Phillips Brooks castle of Newton, Stirling castle of Abundance and Perilous castle of Waterville, knights of King Arthur, was held Monday evening in Elliot Congregational church. Denison K. Bullens, merlin, was in charge of the convence. The principal feature was an address by Hubert Carleton, under secretary of the brotherhood of St. Andrew, who interestingly described his experiences in boys' work in various parts of the country.

SONS OF VETERANS

J. Wiley Edmonds Camp, Sons of Veterans, met in Grand Army hall, Wednesday evening, Mr. Arthur W. Stone of Roxbury, a personal friend

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Eighteen men were out for the first try out for the baseball team and from now on until after Labor Day the Y. M. C. A. will be represented on the diamond. The first game will be played with Allen School on April 18th. Wm. Chase has been chosen captain and Thomas Sullivan manager. The Board of Directors meets next Monday evening at 7.45. A full attendance is desired. We are glad to record that the Association at Bangor, Maine, has just received a bequest of $25,500 in bonds, paying 10 per cent. dividends, forty-five shares of stock worth $120 per share, and is made a residuary legatee of the estate which will increase the bequest to more than $100,000. In one year since the opening of Omaha's new building the membership has increased from 805 to 2,993. Omaha has the largest boys' membership in the world, 509. The attendance at the two meetings last Sunday was 60. A good average for this time of the year. Men and boys are invited to come. Good music and good speakers.

MINISTER'S INSTITUTE

Clergymen from many cities and towns in the greater Boston district were addressed by well-known speakers in a ministers' institute held at Newton Centre Monday under the joint auspices of the Newton theological institution and the First Baptist church. The morning session was opened in the chapel of Colby hall at the theological institution by Rev. J. E. Norcross, president of the Boston ministers' conference, at 10 o'clock. Dr. Nathan E. Wood, president of the theological institution, made an address of welcome. The morning session was devoted to addresses on the general subject, "Baptists and Labor." Rev. Samuel B. Nobbs of North Abington spoke on "From the Point of View of Labor," and he was followed by Rev. Edward Holyoke of Providence, whose subject was "From the Point of View of the Church." A general discussion of these addresses in which many joined followed. After a luncheon provided by the ladies of the First Baptist church parish an afternoon session was opened at 2 o'clock in the church. Rev. Dr. O. S. C. Wallace of Lowell presiding. "Vital Questions in Securing the Right Kind of Ministers" was the general subject of addresses at this session. Rev. Dr. C. H. Watson of Arlington discussed the question, "To what extent ought the claims of the minister be presented to young men in the period of secondary school education?" Rev. Dr. E. F. Merriam, editor of a Baptist publication, discussed, "To what extent and in what ways shall theological students receive financial aid?" Rev. F. W. Padelford of Lynn closed this series of addresses with a discussion with the question, "To what extent are changes necessary in the standards and courses of theological seminaries to attract and train the needed ministry of today?" A general discussion of these addresses followed, being led by Dr. Wallace. The closing feature was an interesting address by Dr. Richard C. Cabot, a consulting physician of Emmanuel church clinic, Boston, on "Psycho-therapeutics and Religion."

LET THE "BLUE BELL" SIGN REMIND YOU=

Of the Errand you forgot to execute, and a ready way out of the difficulty.

Of the order you were asked to deliver for your firm or for your home.

Of the engagement for which you have been delayed and of the quickest way of explaining your inability to meet it.

Of the call you promised to make, but failed to make through forgetfulness.

Of a hundred ways in which, to use a quaint phrase, you may "Let your head save your heels."

REMEMBER:

The sign indicates the presence of a Pay Station.

FROM ANY PAY STATION you may talk, at a reasonable charge, TO ANY OF 290,000 TELEPHONES connected with the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company's system in the four northern New England states.

ALSO WITH TELEPHONES IN 30,000 CITIES AND TOWNS connected with the Long Distance lines of the great Bell system.

With such a convenience at hand is it fair to your friends to "borrow" their telephones? You are liable to impede their channels of communication by making their lines "busy" when others are trying to call them.

of Commander G. B. Macomber, Jr., gave an informal talk on his personal experiences in the Philippines.

C. E. CONVENTION

The program arrangements for the 19th Annual Middlesex County Christian Endeavor Convention have just been completed; and are said by leading Endeavorers to be the strongest for many years. The sessions will be held in the First Congregational church, Natick, Monday, April 20th, and the address of welcome will be by Mr. Frank Atkinson, a former President of the County Union. Mr. A. P. Briggs, of Cambridge, will be in charge of the music. The program topic will be "Applied Christianity."

The afternoon session will begin at 2 o'clock and the speakers at that session will be Rev. Charles H. Daniels, D. D., of South Framingham, a well known Pastor and for several years Secretary of the American Board for Foreign Missions; Mr. Franklin W. Gamse, of Newton, a well known layman, also Hon. George H. Usher, of Westbury, R. I., an Ex-Governor of the State, and editor-publisher of the "Westerly Evening Sun." At the evening session, the first speaker will be Rev. J. Spencer Voorhees, D. D., of Adams, Mass., a Vice-President of the Massachusetts Christian Endeavor Union. The closing speaker will be Rev. O. P. Gifford, D. D., of Brookline, one of the leading and eloquent Baptist pastors of the country.

NEW SUPERVISOR OF DRAWING

At the last meeting of the School committee, Mr. Fred H. Daniels of Springfield was elected supervisor of drawing for the next school year. Mr. Daniels has been filling a similar position in Springfield and has an enviable reputation throughout New England.

The Springfield Republican says: The intensely practical ideas of Mr. Daniels have done much for the schools of Springfield, and in the six years of his work here he has injected a wonderful amount of life and interest into this formerly neglected educational system. He has taken the subject of art out of the list of dry material which pupils have shunned and in which parents have taken little or no interest. Teachers have readily caught the spirit from him, and through his initiative a splendid work has been done here. Superintendent Glynn said that he could not overstate the value of the new drawing supervisors in the country and an excellent man, and he felt that it would be a difficult matter to fill the vacancy to be caused by his departure.

Mr. Daniels is yet a young man, although he has accomplished much in a broad way for the profession in which he is engaged. He was born in Worcester October 19, 1871, and was educated in the public schools of that city. After graduating from the high school there he passed the entrance examinations for Worcester polytechnic institute, but having a natural aptitude for art and drawing, he decided instead to enter the normal art school in Boston. He graduated from two courses there, the general art course and public school training. Following his graduation there, he was student teacher of art for a year, leaving to become drawing supervisor for the schools of Warren and Danvers. After some three months he left Danvers and took on Chicago and Warren in 1895. He did excellent work in Chicago and his departure there after a year's connection with the schools was much regretted. He then became drawing supervisor of the schools in Buffalo, N. Y., where he remained for three years. At the end of that period he was offered and accepted the editorship of a new series of drawing books published by the Prang educational company of Boston, which occupied some eight months. He then became a publisher himself and launched the School Art Book, a monthly publication, which has since obtained wide circulation among the drawing teachers of the country, and of which Henry T. Bailey, formerly state superintendent of education, is now the editor. Mr. Daniels was both editor and manager until 1902, when he was called to the Schools of this city, beginning his work here in September of that year.

Since coming here Mr. Daniels has practiced drawing in the schools to a remarkable extent. He has been accused by fellow-supervisors who have observed his work of being abnormally practical. Illustration of this phase of his work was given in a series of lectures which he gave before the teachers' club on "The furnishing of a modest home," in which he demonstrated how it was unnecessary to have large means in order to make a home artistic and attractive. These lectures have attracted such wide attention that he has concluded to publish them in book form and the book is now in the press in Worcester, to be issued soon. He has also found time to contribute to various art publications and has lectured in many cities and towns throughout the East, and gave a series of lectures before the summer school at the university of Tennessee a few years ago.

Mr. Daniels married Miss Maude Brown of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and they have two children.

Admiral Very has served at the Charleston Navy Yard several times and he will be retired on account of having reached the age limit and completed forty-five years of naval service. Admiral Very was born in Liverpool and spent his boyhood in Cambridge and Malden. Son after the Civil War broke out he enlisted in the navy and he was on several ships sent after Confederate commerce destroyers. He took command at Honolulu on July 20, 1906, and was given the rank of rear admiral two days later.

A Practical Arch Support

AT VERY LOW COST.

Strange that so many people should rail every ache and pain in the ankle, instep, calf, knee or back, RHEUMATISM. Half this distress comes from a strained or weakened arch. Standing all day, or walking on hard pavements is largely the cause. The Jordan arch support will do wonders for this trouble. We have the best arch support on earth, and we sell it at $2.00. It is the only arch support made which will adjust itself to the different heights of the arch, frequently varying an inch in a single day. Other arch supports are stiff and unyielding, while ours is always resilient. It is made of razor steel and best leather, and is very light, strong and durable. We sell persons who have tried all other kinds, costing from $5 to $20.00. They say no amount of money could make them discard such "priceless, comfort giving arch cushions." Do not suffer longer, but try a pair at once. For sale only at our office, or by mail on receipt of price. Send for pamphlet. When ordering by mail give size of shoe. Lady Assistant always in attendance.

—An amusing mock trial was held at the Congregational church last Friday evening. The judge was Captain S. E. Howard and the clerk of the court was Mr. H. B. Patrick. Mr. Charles E. Brauman was accused of stealing a Plymouth Rock rooster, which came over in the Mayflower, from Mr. Joseph N. Lowell. He was acquitted of the crime but the judge fined the plaintiff, the defendant and all the jury.

SIX CENT FARES

Protests against six-cent fares on the Middlesex & Boston and the Natick & Cohasset street railways were heard by the Railroad Commissioners at Boston Tuesday forenoon; but the public hearing developed less interest than some of the local meetings on the same subject.

Wellsey secured an indefinite postponement on its petition, intending to consider the companies' statements at the recent mass meeting and make further study before presenting its case. Ashland and Natick had no official present to speak on their petitions when their cases were called.

Rev. John E. Crowley, president of the Hopkinton Board of Trade, said the increase bore hard on many residents of this town, who were obliged to ride to and from their work in Natick or South Framingham every day. If the company could not restore five-cent fares generally, he urged that workmen's fares or tickets at the old rate might be introduced for certain hours morning and evening to accommodate the wage earners.

President J. L. Richards and Gen. Man. M. C. Brush represented the company. President Richards said the company had considered the effect of six-cent fares on all classes of patrons before making the increase. It would have been possible to continue at the old rate if the company had been ready to cut the wages of its employees to the level of several years ago. But this would have meant poor service, he felt sure. He thought the communities served by the company preferred fair rates and good service to low rates and poor service.

He submitted a statement of the financial condition of the companies as an indication of the justifiability of the increase to six-cent fares, and offered to bear the expense of an audit to satisfy the Board of its correctness. He also arranged to have the Board furnished with a copy of the appraised values of the street railways in the Boston Suburban Electric Companies system as recently made by an expert engineer.

The increased expense of materials and of operation, he said, made it absolutely necessary to increase the fares if the companies were to continue in business and give the public their accustomed service. The hearing was then closed, and the Board took the protests under advisement.

The hearing on the proposed increase to six cents where transfers are given on the Newton Street Railway lines, will take place next Tuesday morning.

MIDSHIPMAN WARE MARRIED

The many friends of Midshipman Bruce R. Ware, Jr., U. S. N., of this city will be interested to learn of his marriage on March 31st in San Francisco to Miss Nannie D. Norris of Baltimore. The acquaintance of the young couple dates back nearly five years when young Ware first entered the Naval Academy, and their engagement was announced last October.

Mr. Ware's father says, “I was aware of Miss Norris leaving Baltimore last week for San Francisco, and expected a notification of the wedding, so that it was not a surprise to me. While I should have preferred to have had them wait until both families could be present the exigencies of naval service made this impossible, as he may not be back in the East for several years. His choice of Miss Norris as his wife meets with my entire approval, and I have telegraphed them both my love and congratulations.”

THE FOUNDERS MEMORIAL.

“In Recognition of Those Who Labored to Found a Hospital in Newton and To Further Their Beneficent Work This Memorial Building And Grounds Have Been Presented To The Hospital Corporation By Melan Bray 1908.”

These are the words inscribed on the tablet on the new Hospital building to be called “Founders Memorial.” No finer tribute could be given to those men and women who, twenty-five years ago, founded the Newton Hospital.

“Founders Memorial” is a fine large three story building providing for the care of private surgical cases of both sexes, public maternity wards, and for private maternity cases. About thirty additional patients can be cared for in this new building.

“Founders Memorial” building, including the land, and completely furnished ready for occupancy, will be presented to the Hospital Corporation with proper exercises on Friday, May 1.

During the last week the trustees have invited the citizens of Newton to contribute each $10.00 toward the changes and improvements necessary for the occupancy of this important addition. It is hoped that every one will respond and that many others will take this occasion to add their mite as an expression of appreciation for the most unusual gift of one citizen of Newton, a gift to an institution which is one of service to every citizen of Newton poor and rich alike; an institution which is preventing the spread of disease, saving lives and relieving suffering every day the year round.

UNDER THE GILDED DOME

With a rapidly lengthening calendar, the Great and General Court is making progress towards prorogation, altho it must be confessed that the really important matters of the session are mostly in the future. Senator Vahcy, who saved his referendum bill on the death penalty, at first from the defeat which met his other bills on the same subject, was also defeated on the referendum, 16 to 19, when the final vote was recorded on the measure. Nevertheless, it was a gallant fight, the Senator put up and deserved a better fate.

Leave to withdraw is still the favorite report of committees and the efforts of different representatives to save this or that particular measure from legislation oblivion have been, thus far, rarely successful. Representative Duane of Waltham, whose bill to split up Dr. West's medical examiner district, received a committee black eye, was also unsuccessful in his efforts to have the House substitute a bill and Dr. West will continue to cover a district consisting of Newton, Watertown, Waltham and Weston.

Mayor Hutchinson's bill to regulate bill board advertising by aldermanic license, and a fee for each square foot of space, went down in the committee together with all other bills on the same subject. The Mayor's bill had two supporters in the committee, Messrs. Hodskins of Palmer and Hill of Framingham, who filed a dissent from the committee report, on this particular measure, altho the reports of other similar bills were unanimous.

Mr. Duane's proposition to spend $25,000 for band concerts in the metropolitan park district was negated by the committee on metropolitan affairs, as it deserved and the Public Health Committee refused to prohibit the feeding of city garbage to swine. Next General Court was reported on the bills of the writer to enlarge the powers of the City of Newton regarding use of water income, and similar action was taken on the proposition to include Downing's pond in the metropolitan park reservation. Representative Lothrop was recorded in the negative on the vote to allow the taking of photographs on Sunday, other representatives not being recorded on the measure on the first roll call.

State Treasurer Chapin has issued an interesting compilation showing the division of the State tax and the distribution of the corporation tax of 1907, exclusive of the street railway tax, to the cities and towns; also the gain and loss to each city and town if there had been no State tax for 1907 and the corporation tax had been retained by the Commonwealth.

It is shown that the result of retention would mean a gain of $79,081 to 256 cities and towns, and a loss of $703,607 to 98 cities and towns. The total State tax of $1,000,000 would have been almost wiped out since the total corporation tax distributed to the cities and towns where shareholders lived amounted to $5,724,326. Newton, of course, is one of the cities which will lose by the proposed change, our loss being figured at $79,041, second to that of Brookline, which will lose $124,475. It is growing more and more evident, that the present method of distributing the corporation tax will soon be changed, and, while any change will mean a serious loss in the income of Newton, it is up to our representatives to make the best trade possible in determining what the future disposition shall be.

Mr. W. A. Graustein, one of the largest milk contractors of Boston, told the committee on Agriculture the other day at an interesting hearing on the milk question that more milk was consumed in Newton than in any other city in the world.

The contest for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor is gradually coming down to a choice between Speaker John N. Cole, former speaker of the House, and Representative Robert Luce of Somerville, with the chances at this moment in favor of the Speaker. The real fight, however, will not begin until after the delegates have been selected for the national convention at Chicago.

IN MEMORIAM

At the regular meeting of the West Newton Educational Club, held on Friday, March 27, the opening exercises were commemorative of Mrs. Electa N. L. Walton, the founder and for many years president of the club.

Mrs. Alvin H. Clifford, president, gave expression to the homage and appreciation due to one who for many years had been a leader and an inspiration.

Addresses were made by Mrs. Nathaniel T. Allen and Mrs. Kathleen M. Phipps, honorary vice-presidents, and intimate friends and co-workers with Mrs. Walton.

Mrs. Allen said in part: "Electa Lincoln Walton, although born in New York, was essentially a Massachusetts woman, as her father, Mar in Lincoln returned from New York with wife and children to teach in a school in Lancaster, when Electa was but two years of age. Mr. Lincoln was a lineal descendant of Obadiah Lincoln as was Abraham Lincoln.

Mrs. Walton was under the tuition of her father until the family changed its residence to Boston. She entered the State Normal School at Lexington at seventeen years of age, and studied under Rev. Samuel J. May and Rev. Cyrus Pierce, the noted principal of the first Normal School for women in the world. Electa, following her graduation was an assistant in the Franklin School of Boston, but later returned to the Normal School at Lexington to teach; the school was soon removed to West Newton and there began my acquaintance with Miss Lincoln. During the absence of the principal, (Father Pierce), in Europe, Miss Lincoln, not over twenty-three years of age, was placed at the head of the school by the Board of Education; she maintained the position with great dignity and ability and won the love and respect of the young women under her.

After the retirement of the principal, there was a strong feeling that a great injustice was done Miss Lincoln when a man was placed over her to carry on the school, simply because she was a woman.

After teaching seven years Miss Lincoln became the wife of Geo. A. Walton, and after her marriage Mrs. Walton taught the children of some noted families and friends with her own children in her home.

She taught also in the Massachusetts Teacher's Summer Institute, the Summer Normal School of Virginia.

and by invitation of Gen. Armstrong, she conducted a Teacher's Institute for the graduating class at Hampton, Hooker T. Washington was under her instruction.

Mrs. Walton was a pupil of James E. Murdock, the tragedian, and Prof. Wm. Russell, the elocutionist, and taught for many years reading and vocal training in the Westfield Normal School.

At the time of the War of the Rebellion, during a residence in Lawrence, Mrs. Walton by her individual efforts turned the waning sympathies of the people toward the Sanitary Commission. A public address delivered by her, resulted in a "Fair" that netted nearly $7,000 for the use of the Commission.

Mrs. Walton was a co-author with her husband of a series of arithmetics. Her belief in the right of woman with man, to be rated at her worth, and to be credited with her work, was intensified by the decision of the publishers that her name should be withheld from the title page of the arithmetic she had helped to prepare; from believing simply in the right of woman suffrage, she became an earnest advocate for the complete enfranchisement of woman.

Mrs. Walton believed that through suffrage the cause of temperance and kindred reforms would be best advanced, and was the president of the Westfield W. C. T. U. for some years.

She was eminently religious in practice and faith. She was president of the Suffrage League, a defender of dumb animals, and pleader for the lives of birds. She was a trustee for fifteen years of the Hannah Pierce and to be used in the preparation of worthy young girls for teaching; for five have been benefited by it.

But now look where we may, that lighted face will smile no more upon us; she has fought a good fight, she has finished her work nobly and well, and there is laid up for her a crown of glory.

To us, she can live only in memory. Let us cherish that memory and example and live on and work on with high and noble purpose, to make this a purely Educational Club, aiming to lift its members to a higher plane of living, embracing all that will tend to the uplifting of woman; and may we copy her simply serenely of purpose.

Mrs. Phipps followed and said: "No place could be more fitting for this memorial service than this in which we meet today; a place with which her loving spirit was so familiar and for so many faithful years! This service is not a formality, but before all things else a spontaneous and loving memorial and testimony, heartfelt as the gathering of a group at home. Love and honor never more willingly, more delicately, or more deeply met than now, in the tribute we pay to this rare spirit whose light shone among us as a member of this club for twenty-eight years; for twenty years its devoted president;—Our Honorary President for the last eight years.

The sense of loss is overwhelming and needs no emphasis, O, that I might adequately give expression to our loyalty to her memory, that memory so sacred to our hearts, so beautiful, so inspiring!

Our truest bonds of fellowship are not material; they are not even in institutions, but they are in the presence and ascendancy among us of those who embody qualities which we in common, delight to honor. In dear Mrs. Walton's personality were incarnated those qualities.

As Coleridge said of Channing, she "had the love of wisdom and the wisdom of love." Her work is not to be estimated by the number of persons she reached, but by the quality and inflections of the trust and love she gave to each life which her own touched.

She spoke to us often in the earthly tongue. She should speak to us and we should hear her hereafter in the celestial language. Her instruction will still be of the duty and the duty of courage and constancy, and of noble enthusiasm in seeking the highest attainment, for our more perfect fitness for place among the Saints in Light."

"The one gift man may offer without fail. And live a life nor praise nor blame can mar. Such lives are potent as the stars and tide. Sled fast through shifting cloud or shallow foam. What gentleness, what power, with them abide! We count on them however far we roam."

The following resolutions were offered by Mrs. Kathleen M. Phipps and adopted by the club. Resolved, That we give thanks to God for our beloved Mrs. Walton's long, useful, and influential life, for the beauty and elevation of her character, and for her devoted and faithful work for this Club.

We witness to the disinterested purpose which marked her life in this organization, and rejoice in the assurance that her path which "shone more and more" here, has led her onward and upward to the eternal Heights of the mystery of the Life Beyond.

Resolved, That we sympathize with those that mourn:—the many other organizations, and the many other friends who with us sorrow that we shall "see her face no more."

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy to her immediate family, and wish for them the comfort of God in their experience of submission and of loss.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Mr. Walton and family, and that a copy of them be spread upon our own records.

Mrs. Jessie I. Gammons sang most pleasingly two groups of songs of her own composition.

Mrs. Evangeline Campbell Peterson closed the program with a rendition of "Judith and Holofernes." A very successful Easter Sale followed.

"The Taft men will stick to Colonel Sidney O. Bigney of Attleboro," ex-Congressman Samuel L. Powers, manager of the Taft campaign says.

Colonel Bigney is out in the open and has been making his fight, and has received assurances of support which makes it impossible for the Taft men to support Governor Long, unless they drop Governor Bates from their slate.

Messrs. Crane, Lodge, Bates and Bigney are satisfactory to the Taft men," said Congressman Powers. "I see no reason why the slate should be changed unless it should appear that the anti-Taft men intend to go so far as to make it impossible for Taft men to support one of their friends."

Colonel Bigney has declared that he would fight Mr. Long to a finish if he comes out in opposition, and the colonel predicts that there will be wounds opened in the Republican party that will not be healed in years.

One of the part of the old-time members of the Republican organization there was secret exultation on account of the determination of Manager Powers to stick to Colonel Bigney. Years ago there was trouble between Michael J. Murray, now Justice Murray, and ex-Governor Long over the chairmanship of the Republican State convention.

The State committee favored Mr. Murray, but a combination of the Crane men, backed by Governor Bates, backed Governor Long for the chairmanship, and it resulted in his election after a stormy afternoon session in the Republican State committee, which made the choice.

THE POLYMNIA

The Polymnia scored a distinct success in its third Guest Night, held Wednesday evening, April 1st, at the hospitable and charming home of Mrs. H. F. Ross, 414 Walnut street, Newtonville. The work of the evening along more ambitious lines than on the earlier social occasions of the season, particularly the short cantata "The Water-Sprite's Revenge" by Karl Bendl, in which the Polymnia was assisted by Mrs. Louis Ross, soprano, and Miss Harriet Morse, mezzo-soprano. It is a dramatic and spirited composition, showing to good advantage the club's excellent training and faithful work.

Other chorus numbers of the program were "Peasants' Wedding March," Sodermann; "Little Brown Bee," Mrs. H. H. A. Beach; "The Lord is My Shepherd," Bargiel, and a Serenade by Schubert. (Not the serenade, but a satirical serenade, set to very lovely music.)

Solo numbers—Violin solos by Miss Margaret McGee, a good set of songs from Mrs. Louis Ross, with violin obligato; and three tenor songs from Mr. John Worcester Merrill, added much to the enjoyment and success of the evening.

Richards and General Manager M. C. Brush of the Newton Street Railway.

Kelth's Theatre—There are few more popular actors with New Englanders than Richard Golden, who has recently produced a new sketch in vaudeville. It is a dramatization by Clay M. Green of Holman F. Day's beautiful story, "Squire Bill," under the title of "A Case of Divorce." This sketch is a capital blending of pathos and humor, and tells with a most human story.

A real American comedienne who sings real American songs—such a personage is Irene Franklin. Her songs are all of the character type.

The Duffin-Reddy Troupe of four clean-cut athletes perform the most sensational casting act of the day. Their "Loop-the-Loop" is a most wonderful stunt.

Quinn and Mitchell, in a novel conversational skit entitled "The Land Agent," Melville and Higgins, who rank among the finds of the season; Miss Melville being a particularly bright soubrette; Juno Salmo, in an out-of-the-ordinary contortion act; the Dixie Serenaders, in a ragtime festival; the Martin Brothers, expert xylophonists; Foster, and his remarkable dog, "Wise Mike," Farnon, Willis and Ramsey, in a brisk dancing and singing turn; Dorothy Randol, a chic comedienne; and new Kinetograph pictures will all have places on the program.

The peculiar fact about the new "Crawford" and "Walker" heating boilers is that they heat where others fail.

They are a gilt-edge investment for those who want heat and plenty of it at the minimum of expense and care. The "Heat Ribs" cast on the interiors of these boilers are found in no others.

AN EDITOR'S DUTY

Mr. A. P. Langtry, editor of the Springfield Union, recently spoke to the Republican Editorial Association of Massachusetts as follows:—

The editor in his every day life best illustrates the principles and idea of loyalty. He must always be loyal to his community and its citizens. It is considered his duty to enlarge on all the good points and gloss over all the bad ones in his town. If there is a movement in his community for the betterment of conditions he must always be the leader regardless of the self-sacrifice it may impose and in return he gets no compensation and no credit. Everyone says the editor simply did his duty and why should he be praised for doing his duty. If there is a movement for charity, by the power of publicity he must make it a success. He must contribute tens and, perhaps hundreds of dollars of space in his paper, space as valuable to him as the goods to the merchant. Then he must go into ecstasies over the generosity of the merchants, many of whom I regret to say are in the habit of contributing a $5 prize on a $10 basis. He does all these things simply because of loyalty to the community and if he fails to do what the people think is his duty, he is derided on all sides, by the merchant who does not advertise, and the man who borrows his newspaper. We admire loyalty on the battlefield and on the quarterdeck. That kind of loyalty gains praise of friend and foe alike but it takes as much courage to be loyal 365 days in the year and it is my sincere hope that some day the editor will get his just deserts.

There is a spirit of discontent sweeping over the land. A chain of newspapers, a newspaper trust owned by a multi-millionaire with political ambitions is largely responsible. The damage has been done by the use of printers ink and the only way that it can be undone is by the liberal use of printers ink. The yellow press uses vigorous English. It goes at a proposition with hammers and tongs. If we would meet the issue squarely we too must indulge in vigorous English. It is not necessary that we use double column 10 pt. but it is necessary that we strike back with vigor, that we fight the devil with fire. The election is this State and in the Nation is in danger and it is our duty to fight for the Republican ticket, not from loyalty to the party but from loyalty to the country. In this election, law, order and government are all on the Republican side and we must fight not to save the party but to save the country. It is not the duty of the Republican Editor to blindly support the party. It is his duty to fight to keep the party right but he serves his party best who refuses to be a party tool. If the party indorses wrong principles or nominates bad men the Republican editor should bolt the party. We need loyalty this fall as almost never before and there is no occasion for bolting the party either because of its principles or its candidates. We know that Eben Draper is an ideal citizen, just the man to be Governor of this grand old Commonwealth. For second place there are several candidates and we know them all and know that they are all well qualified. It may be that one of us, an editor, will be the candidate and if he is we shall all gladly and loyally support him. There are many candidates for President and all are fit. It makes but little difference whether the leader be Hughes, Taft, Knox or Cannon, he will be a man of whom we can well be proud. We must fight this fall as if we were on the battlefield and we must remember that the editor is a thousand times better qualified to make the fight than is the orator. The pen is mightier than the spellbinder. We must be vigorous in our defense. We must fight from now until the people have once again put the Republican party in control of the nation, the party that John Hay so aptly said is the "Party fit to govern."

THE MERGER

The following interview with Congressman Ames of Lowell contains many interesting facts regarding the proposed merger of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine Railroad companies.

"I would, says Mr. Ames, 'protect the state at all hazards from losing control of its complete supervision over its railroads and its corporations and not only would not favor a decrease, but would rather require an increase of such supervision and regulation. I am in accord with Gov. Gould on the railroad situation as expressed in his recent inaugural address. At the same time, I am not blind to the facts and conditions that actually exist or to the real necessity of bettering the wretched service, both passenger and freight, that we who reside in the district served by the Boston & Maine are forced to endure.

"Nowhere in the United States can be found a community of the size of Lowell, within a radius of 30 miles of a large center like Boston, so poorly served with passenger and freight accommodations.

"With the express trains to Boston, coming from the north, almost invariably late, and the refusal to check baggage to points on the New Haven

or Boston & Albany roads, almost any change would be a blessing.

"The reduction in the number of our passenger trains and the excessive demurrage on coal and freight, with from one to two weeks time required to get freight from Lowell to Boston, may all be attributed to shortage of money, cars, engines and equipment of the Boston & Maine, but such accounting does not offer relief.

"We must face the conditions that exist; then analyze the situation with a view to securing the greatest economic and commercial benefits and to providing protection to the individual and the state by every possible safeguard.

"With others who have lived in the district served by the Boston & Maine, I know from constant and unkind experience of the poor and inadequate service rendered by that comparison. Our boards of trade, our merchants, our manufacturers have pleaded again and again in vain for better service and cheaper rates.

"For 30 years or more the rate of 85 cents per ton of coal has been charged from Boston to Lowell, a distance of 26 1/2 miles, or at a rate of 33-10 cents per ton mile, while the average cost of coal haul in the United States is only eight-tenths of a cent per ton mile.

"In an effort to better the condition of my own immediate district, I endeavored to obtain a certificate of exigency, under the Interurban law, for a new road between Boston and Lowell. My first attempt was defeated, largely through the efforts of this same railroad, which is not only unable to give adequate facilities, but is now even endeavoring to prevent the fulfillment of the desires of the people of Lowell and Lawrence, as well as all the intermediate towns to Boston, for further accommodations. We who have fought against the existing conditions, fully realize that any change could be only for the better.

"I understand that the Boston & Maine stock acquired by the New Haven was not primarily sought after by the New Haven but was itself seeking a market. This stock though sufficient to practically control the Boston & Maine, has not been controlled or owned by the Massachusetts or even New England people for a long time. This stock was placed in the hands of brokers for sale. Among other possible customers, the brokers applied to those in charge of New Haven interests, with the result that the stock was acquired by New Haven people.

"While it is to be regretted it is nevertheless a fact not to be lost sight of that Massachusetts people have not seemed sufficiently interested in the Boston & Maine railroad to acquire control, or even show a desire to control this large block of stock. It might have been purchased and the Boston & Maine so controlled by any other railroad in the United States, or even by a railroad of some foreign country. Since the controlling interest has passed away where could it better go than to the New Haven railroad, which is really a southern New England railroad system?

"It would have been unfortunate, from our point of view, had it gone into the hands of the New York Central, after the experience Massachusetts people have had with the Boston & Albany lease, nor are we ready to have it go into the hands of Mr. Harriman in the interest of the Delaware and Hudson. It would have been a national misfortune to have had this stock control passed into the hands of either the Canadian Pacific or the Grand Trunk. The interests of those concerned in these properties would be primarily to develop Canadian ports.

"With the control of the railroad that serves the entire business of northern New England in the hands of other than citizens of the United States, should a difficulty arise between this country and Great Britain and Canada, how easy it would be for the greater part of the rolling stock of the Boston & Maine railroad to be found across the Canadian line when trouble actually arose.

"Under these circumstances, which must be understood and accepted as necessary to a proper determination of the question, if Massachusetts citizens are unwilling to invest their money in this large block of Boston & Maine stock, is not the control of it by the New Haven preferable to ownership by any other interests?

"Certain results must necessarily follow from united management of practically the whole New England railroad system. The interests of New England and of the great territory west of the Hudson river, from a railroad point of view, are in conflict. The New England railroads are not strictly speaking, trunk lines, but are great distributing and collecting systems. There must always be a diversity of interest in the division of rates between the railroad systems of New England and the trunk lines west of the Hudson river. It is plain that if the New England railroads can be handled as a unit, better rates for New England merchants and shippers can be obtained than if the New England railroads are separately contending for through traffic.

"A striking instance of the consequence which may result from the lack of unity of management and action appears in the present controversy between the New England roads and the trunk lines west of the Hudson river over the per diem charges imposed by the western roads for the use of the freight cars while on New-England tracks. A short time ago the charge per day was 25 cents, which was increased to 25 cents, and within a year increased arbitrarily to 50 cents per day per car.

"According to the report for the year ending June 30, 1907, the net cost to the New Haven railroad for this one item exceeded $300,000. The same item cost the Boston & Maine railroad over $900,000. With the same number of cars at 50 cents per day, the net cost to the Boston & Maine of per diem charges for the current year will be approximately $1,800,000, or 6 per cent, on the capital stock of the road, and something over 1 per cent on the capital stock of the New Haven railroad, all of which must, of course, be paid by the public in the end.

"If the New England railroads could, however, act as a unit in resisting this excessive charge, it is certainly to be expected that a satisfactory arrangement could be obtained with the trunk lines west of the Hudson river. Under present conditions, freight shipped from any part of the Boston & Maine system to any part of the New Haven system in less than carload lots, must be transferred at junction points, unavoidably causing delay and additional expense, which would, of course, be avoided if the two roads were united under a single control.

"Great advantages would be derived from the ability to interchange equipment. The possibilities which exist for uniting under a progressive management would necessarily conduce to the welfare of the business sections of New England. The systems united should have no interests outside of New England. They must make their living on the communities which they serve. Their individual interest would, then, naturally be to develop an interchange of business between all those communities in which their lines are operated.

"The New England railroad has proceeded farther than the Boston & Maine with the elimination of grade crossings, with the purchase of new and up-to-date equipment, with the introduction of fast passenger and freight service and with the reduction of passenger fares. It has by improvement of its roadbed, reconstruction of bridges, straightening of tracks, etc., vastly improved the convenience of travel between Boston and New York. If, under joint control, the New Haven system of electrification—such as has already been adopted at the New York end of the road as far as Stamford—should be introduced at the Boston end of that line, it would be possible to operate trains between Boston and suburban points by electricity more frequently and with far greater comfort to passengers, practically eliminate the nuisance of smoke and save the great expense of switching at both stations. Great possibilities for improvement in suburban travel would be opened up by the construction of the tunnel between the North and South stations which has been spoken of.

"This would admit of operating trains by electricity from suburban points on the Boston & Maine, through the tunnel, to suburban points on the New Haven, and would greatly reduce the number of train movements required by constant switching in both the North and South stations, probably suitable and adequate for the needs of the travelling public for many years to come."

A SALE WORTH PATRONIZING

It is seldom that an appeal is put forth in behalf of a more worthy object than that which is now made for the Nursery for Blind Babies. It receives children from all over New England, tenderly cares for them and renders skilled medical and surgical treatment when necessary and trains them to enter the Kindergarten for the Blind. There have been cases where sight has been restored and very many cases that are hopeless are at least made comfortable and taught to do for themselves. Surely such a beneficent charity should have the generous support of the public, and it is for this reason that a sale is to be held at the house of Mrs. H. C. Grant, 156 Park street, Newton, on Wednesday, April 15, from 10 to 6 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited. In case of rain the sale will continue the following day.

Crosby's Restaurant, 19 School street, Boston, is a good place to dine. tf

One feature of Mayor Hutchinson's administration of the liquor law,
which is causing considerable worry
on the part of those interested, is his probable attitude towards the granting of licenses of the sixth class to druggists, and to the so-called "pony" expresses. The stricter element in the temperance ranks, is urging the city government to refuse to grant the usual druggists' licenses this year,
simply as an experiment. They claim that druggists will still have the right,
to sell alcoholic liquors on a physician's certificate or prescription, and that the legitimate demand for liquor will thereby be satisfied. We do not wholly agree with this theory, and are of the opinion that the present method is working in a satisfactory manner. It is true that there are probably minor abuses in the present license system, but they are innate to the liquor traffic, and cannot be eradicated until the millennium arrives. We fear that if druggists' licenses are refused, the pernicious kitchen barroom will spring up all over the city, and inflict a far more serious damage than what we now experience. Moreover the inconvenience and additional expense involved in the citizen's actual
need of liquor for medicinal purposes,
under the so-called "eight class license" would be so great that the danger of an increased "YES" vote next fall would become serious. A strict enforcement of the present plan, we believe, would be most satisfactory
to the public in general.

All the parents in the Bigelow
school district ought to read the words of Dr. Spaulding, Superintendent of Schools, in the annual report of the department, just issued, relative to the one session plan now in vogue in that district. Dr. Spaulding says the one session as practised in the Bigelow district is a "serious mistake". Sometime parents will awaken to the fact that both the mental and physical well being of their children are being needlessly impaired by a five hour school session.

An interesting feature of the present street railway situation in this city, is the fact that it costs five cents to reach the south side of the city from Newton or West Newton,
and six cents to return.

Beware your mother-in-law.

Women's Clubs Department

On Wednesday morning, the Social Science Club and its guests, had the great pleasure of listening to a lecture
on "John Harvard" by Dean Hodges
of Cambridge.

The reconstruction of John Harvard's life (made possible by the finding of his father's will in 1884 by Mr.
Waters, Harvard '65, and subsequent research in the archives of Stratford and Southwark) shows that he was born in Southwark in 1607, attended St. Saviour's School in that place, and matriculated at Emmanuel College, Cambridge where he was made Bachelor of Arts in 1631, and Master of Arts in 1635. He came to New England in 1637 and settled in Charlestown where he took up his work in the ministry; but only for a year. His early death at the age of twenty-nine,
gave to Harvard lasting benefit for he left to the college half his fortune and his library of 300 books. Of the library but one volume remains as the rest were destroyed in the fire at Harvard Hall.

Mr. Hodges showed in an interesting manner the probable friendship
between Harvard's family and Shakespeare, the boy's early life in school and college (how different from school-boy life today) and the terrible results of the plague which caused the deaths of five of the Harvard family.
In five weeks, and probably influenced John in his choice of the ministry as a profession.

A most attractive picture was drawn
of historic Southwark, the ante-chamber of London. John Harvard's home was near the entrance to London Bridge with its fearful crown of mal-efactors' heads; the Globe Theatre was opposite the home. St. Saviour's church behind it, at one side;
stretching down the street lay
nine Inns headed by the Bear's Head
and including the Tabard and Queen's Head Inns.

A wonderful place was Southwark,
the home of the theatre, the resting-
place of all foreigners entering London.

At the next meeting, April 16th, Mr.
Charles H. Morse of the Mass. Commission on Industrial Education will deliver an address on "Technical Schools."

The Perian Club of Newton Upper Falls met with Mrs. Bernard Billings on Wednesday afternoon. Papers were read by Mrs. Titus and Mrs.
Fisher. Mrs. Cooper sang several solos, also Mrs. Billings furnished instrumental music.

A successful musicale was given under the auspices of the Newtonville
Woman's Guild on Tuesday, by Mrs.
George R. Pulsifer, soprano; Miss Bertha Schoff of Boston, pianist; Mr.

George F. Root of Concord, Mass., tenor, and Mrs. Albert P. Carter, accompanied. Mrs. Pulsifer and Mrs.
Carter are members of the Guild. The whole program was delightful, especially Miss Schoff's playing. Tea was served by the flower and music
committees.

The drama "Our Folks" under the charge of Mrs. Irving T. Farnham will be presented by the West Newton Educational Club at the Old Unitarian Church on Wednesday, April 22, at 2.30 P. M. Tickets now on sale. Reserved seats 50 cts. Admission 35 cts.

The next meeting of the Monday
Club will be with Mrs. Atwood, Terrace avenue, Newton Highlands. The committee on next year's work will present their plan. A full attendance is requested.

NEWTON EQUAL SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

The annual meeting of the Newton Equal Suffrage League was held at the residence of Mrs. Geo. F. Lowell, Newtonville, Tuesday morning. The officers elected were as follows: President, Mrs. Geo. F. Lowell; Vice Presidents, Mrs. N. T. Allen, Mrs. J.
P. Tolman, Mrs. K. L. Stevenson,
Mrs. G. D. Gilman, Mr. George A.
Walton, Dr. S. L. Eaton, Jesse C. Ivy;

ville.

MR. EDDY'S RECITAL

The main auditorium of Eliot church
was crowded to its utmost capacity on Wednesday evening when Mr. Clarence Eddy, organist of the Tompkins Avenue Congregational church, Brooklyn, N. Y., gave the last in the series of organ recitals for the present season. Mr. Eddy's program was especially well selected and he held the attention of his audience to the very last note. His playing was very different from either Mr. Gibson's or Mr. Dethler's, and he showed more expression, perhaps, than either one of these artists. In the prelude and Fugue in A minor by Bach, his playing was really marvelous, in fact in all of his numbers he displayed a sureness of touch and a knowledge of technique which left the impression
on the audience that it would be impossible for him to make an error. In Horsman's beautiful "Curfew" the music was so significant of the words that it might be termed the poetry of sound and perhaps, in this piece he best displayed the sympathetic quality
of his playing, although Gullman's
"Lamentation" was restful and expressive to a very high degree. The finale, Holli's "Triumphal March"
was most brilliantly executed.

Taken all in all it was a program
which appealed to every lover of true music and Mr. Eddy easily proved himself a master of his art.

GAMMA SIGMA DRAMATICS

Two amusing sketches, "That Rascal Pat" and "Chums," were presented before a large audience in The Players clubhouse at West Newton, Wednesday evening as the first the-

Charles Hawes, Jr., Theodore Chan-
der, Henry H. Wellington, and Samuel

Nancy, a maid in love with Pat.

"Chums" was then enacted by C.
Asaph Haskell, Charles H. Paul, Carl
E. Holbrook, David Manning and Henry H. Wellington. Mr. Manning
and Mr. Wellington played female roles, and kept the audience in continual merriment.

Between the sketches there were selections by the high school orchestra, a violin solo by Miss Ruth Ivy
and a piano solo by Miss Vida Chase.
Morgan Chamberlin was stage manager, while the committee of arrangements comprised Theodore Chandler,

MEMORIAL WINDOWS

The beautiful Unitarian church at West Newton is to be still further adorned with several memorial windows. A large window at the back of the chancel will be dedicated next Sunday, in memory of the late George L. Lovett. It is in eight panels or divisions and illustrates the "Sermon on the Mount". On Easter Sunday,
the window on the Washington street
front, will be dedicated to the memory of the late Nathaniel T. Allen.
The three leading figures in this window represent Peace, with Justice and Liberty on either side, three ideals in which Mr. Allen was deeply interested. This group is flanked on either side with figures representing Justice and Courage, typifying Mr.
Allen's personal character. Both of these windows were made by the London firm of Eaton, Butler and Bayne.
Mrs. Jerome Jones of Brookline is having a window made by Harry Goodhue of Cambridge, representing Mercy, Justice and Reason, in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Henry A. Gane, former residents on Walham street. This window will face on the interior court yard of the church, and will be dedicated on May 3rd.

at Manager Morison's invitation has created a desire to see this produc-

week Manager Morison has decided to comply with the many requests he feating the Auburndale 2nd team at

however, being the opening game of

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor of Graphic:
One of the strongest influences toward public favor just now, and in the remote past, a public eye-sore, is the condition of the four facades, or the four faces of the Town Clock of the Newtonville avenue great time
piece, opposite to the station on Walnut and Bowers street.

The whole result of agreement of the donors to the Methodist church,
and the consent of the latter to keep the four clocks, in fine repair and condition, is considered in the courtesy of the trustees and anybody and everybody is very anxious to witness
new and clean housekeeping on their part. All hands wish to meet and join in praise and prayer that new light and times are ready to come to the front. Please do not let this appeal go stale. It is now or never.
Old Habitué.

Crosby's Restaurant, 19 School
street, Boston, is a good place to dine.

SIX CENT TRANSFERS

There was slight interest manifested at the hearing before the Railroad commissioners, last Tuesday morning, when the petition of the Newton Street Railway Co. for permission to charge six cents on each fare where transfers were issued.

President James L. Richards said it was purely a business proposition, and submitted printed statements of the financial condition of each division of the company. The directors believed that the public would prefer to pay the additional cent rather than have employees' wages cut down, or the service materially reduced. The company has a perfect legal right to increase its rate of fare, and has done so on the Waverley line in Waltham, and from which they expect about $2500 additional revenue. The six cent transfer is expected to add $8000 to the receipts of the company, and the company hopes the increase will be sufficient to avoid a general raising of fares to six cents.

City Solicitor W. S. Slocum made a formal statement for a committee of the aldermen appointed to represent the city at this hearing, calling attention to the fact that all locations granted by Newton contained a provision that the rate of fare should be five cents and entitle the passenger to a free transfer. If the Railroad Commissioners determine that the financial condition of these street railways is such at the present time, that the petition should be granted and transfers issued on the payment of 6 cents, it is suggested that the change should be temporary only, and for a period not exceeding one year.

Alderman Charles F. Avery endorsed the position taken by Mr. Slocum.

City Solicitor T. F. Carey of Waltham said the proposition was most unusual. In 1904 the Newton Co. consolidated with other street railways which were not in paying condition, and now asks that the commission allow them to make the public contribute to make the enterprise profitable. He believed the Company to be extravagant in its management. The Lexington line, he stated, which formerly paid dividends, had now discontinued paying them.

Alderman Kearns of Waltham said that he estimated that only 25% of Waltham passengers asked for transfers. Waltham is so compact that transfers are not worth the extra cent, and the transfer business is so small that the results would not justify the measure.

Mr. Samuel Tarplin of Newton Centre, who said he represented the citizens of Newton, had a controversy with City Solicitor Slocum as to the right of the alderman to violate contracts with the Company. Mr. Slocum replied that the supreme courts of the state and nation had stated that the relations between municipalities and street railway companies were not contractual and that the city in this case had waived none of its rights.

In reply to questions and statements, Mr. Richards said that the consolidation of 1904 had included companies which had paid good dividends prior to that event, except that the Waltham city government had begged them to take over the bankrupt Waltham Street Railway Co. The Newton Company purchases power from the Newton & Boston Company and the Waltham Gas Co., both of which the holding company controls, and at prices filed with the Gas Commissioners, based on a sliding scale depending on the amount of power used. The holding company includes the various street railways, the Waltham Gas and Norumbega

The dividends paid annually by the holding company had been as follows: 2 per cent, 4 per cent, 3 per cent, 2 per cent, 2½ per cent, 3 per cent and nothing for the past three quarters. In conclusion Mr. Richards said it was impossible for the company to borrow any money, and they must make an improvement in their financial condition to even renew the floating indebtedness. The proposed abolition of grade crossings in Waltham will cost between $75,000 and $100,000 and $40,000 must be expended this year in repairs to even make the roadbed safe.

Y. M. C. A.

With the coming of the warm days and the desire to be out of doors naturally thoughts turn to plans for the summer and vacation time. And it is here that the Young Men's Christian Association would like to draw the attention of the parents to the camps. Between thirty and forty of the boys of this city have been spending a part or whole of their vacation at Camp Becket in the Berkshire Hills. This is a farm of large acreage around Rudd Lake. The life of the camp is that of the woods—sleeping in tents with a leader for every five boys, and the best of food, prepared by three as good cooks as can be secured. All vegetables are raised on the farm itself and milk, butter and creamery supplies are purchased direct from the surrounding farms thus giving an unequalled opportunity for securing the best. The camp is planned for boys between 12 and 18 yrs. of age and will accommodate one hundred per week. The base ball, swims, boating, hikes, camp jollies, camp fires, together with the hundred and one things to be done fill up the days. A party from this city is now being organized and full information together with pictures will gladly be given to those interested at the Association office. Applications for this season started coming in as early as last December and over seventy per cent of the places are now taken, thus making it necessary for those interested to take the matter up at an early date.

For those who like the seashore, Camp Durell, on an island near Friendship, Maine, affords a fine opportunity and is under the same management as Camp Becket. Every boy ought to have an outing by the shore or in the woods each summer.

Steam and Hot Water

The peculiar fact about the new "Crawford" and "Walker" heating boilers is that they heat where others fail. They are a gilt-edge investment for those who want heat and plenty of it at the minimum of expense and care. The "Heat Ribs" cast on the interiors of these boilers are found in no others.

THE NEED OF UNIFORM LEGISLA- TION.

By Ellen Spencer Mussey, LL.M., Dean, Washington College of Law,
in the Federation Bulletin for March.

All the world on this great American continent subscribes to the doctrine that "all men are born free and equal," but there can be no equality without equal opportunity. Equal opportunity is the birthright of every child, and it is the duty of the women of this country to see that they have it. That means that there must be such laws in every one of the forty-five States as will insure to every child the sacred right to an environment in which he can grow strong and his powers expand to the utmost.

It means that up to the age of sixteen he shall have the protection of the law against the demand of business competition for child labor because it is cheap.

It means that no child shall be deprived of its birthright in free America of a good English education, and that there must be laws making it compulsory upon parents and guardians to send every child to school until it has received that much from the State.

It means that the State has no right to brand as a criminal a child who is too young to be held in law to the liabilities of a civil contract, and that therefore there must be juvenile Courts and probation officers to deal with minors who have gone astray, and bring them back to their normal condition and make good citizens of them.

It means that the law must recognize that mothers as well as fathers are the natural guardians of their children, and that she is not to be deprived of her duties and responsibilities unless she proves herself unworthy of the sacred charge.

It means that where the mother is of necessity the wage earner, her earnings shall be hers absolutely, free of the debts and control of her husband.

It means that there should be a uniform law of marriage and divorce in all the States, so that we shall not have the anomaly of a ceremony null and void in one State and valid in another, with all the consequent shams and misery to the guilty and innocent alike.

It means that hasty marriages should be impossible, for marriage is a state as well as a contract, so that the State has a right to step in and say, "Know your own mind before you assume such responsibilities for yourself and consequent results to posterity." If thirty days' notice of intention before a marriage license could issue were necessary, it would decrease divorces fifty per cent. In the case of the divorce no decree should be absolute for one year, so that a new marriage could not be hastily consummated.

As these are not subjects for federal legislation, it is necessary to go back to the States and work there, and, in order to work intelligently, every woman should inform herself definitely as to what laws are and what they ought to be. There is a lamentable ignorance on those points even among intelligent club women, who are often well informed as to Greek history and the reasons for the fall of the Roman Empire.

That it is possible to accomplish much in the line of uniform legislation is shown by the success of the American National Bar Association in securing the passage of laws governing the commercial subject of negotiable paper. The same association is now actively engaged in getting uniform State legislation as to divorce laws, but in this women must assist, especially in making healthy public sentiment.

The time to get legislation easily is before there are selfish and sordid interests to combat. In one of our Southern States, where there has been a law putting the age limit for child labor at twelve years, the silk manufacturers got the restriction removed, so that childhood there had for a time no protection.

The most precious thing in the world to the true woman is a little child, and in its behalf she need never fear to demand the attention of those who are intrusted by the people with the high duty of making laws for the protection of not only political and business interests, but for the protection of family life as well.

THE NINTH BIENNIAL.

Presidents of State and Territorial Federations and Presidents of clubs belonging to the General Federation are earnestly requested to send a complete list of their delegates and alternates, as soon as appointed, to the Chairman of the Credential Committee, Mrs. Charlotte W. Bell, 13 Avon place, Springfield, Mass.

Transportation.

Reduced rates for the Ninth Biennial Convention to be held in Boston in June, have been authorized by the New England Passenger Association for all lines except the Eastern Steamship Company, and by the Trunk Line Association. The rate is one fare and a third, certificate plan. A fee of 25 cents will be charged for each certificate issued.

Excursion Plans for the Biennial Visitors.

The Excursion Committee of the Local Federation Board, with the cooperation of several Massachusetts clubs, are developing many interesting plans, and a choice of tempting excursions will be offered the visiting club women on every afternoon from the opening date of the Biennial on June 22 to its close on June 30. A sail "Down the Harbor" will be one of the early attractions, and later the trip to Plymouth will enable many pilgrims to visit the Rock. Historic Boston will be visited on foot and by automobile, and a special excursion will cover the Park and Playground System. A trolley ride to Lexington and Concord will bring the visitors under the hospitable care of the Concord Woman's Club, and the Amesbury clubs will do the honors for Whittier Land. The Salem clubs are eager to show their historic treasures, the clubs of Lynn will arrange an automobile ride to Nahant, and along the beautiful North Shore, and the Cambridge Club will play the hostess for the classic shades of Cambridge.

SUPPRESSION OF TUBERCULOSIS

At the request of the General Federation of Women's Clubs a bill has been introduced in both houses of Congress (Senate Bill 3,117; House Bill 18,445), "To investigate and develop methods of treatment of tuberculosis." The intention of the bill is educational and embraces:

1. Supplying, free of cost, an authoritative statement of the best methods of treating tuberculosis; 2. Supplying, free of cost, reports on later developments and other literature having for its object the suppression of tuberculosis; 3. For the collection of data, models and plans which shall form a permanent exhibit.

Scientists agree that the only way of suppressing tuberculosis is to educate the public in its prevention and cure. The General Federation of Women's Clubs with its large membership of intelligent women in every State furnishes the working organization which can effectively use the educational material provided by this bill.

We ask all who wish the scourge of tuberculosis to be stamped out in their own State to write a personal letter to the members of Congress from their own district asking them to vote in favor of the bill as it stands.

Mrs. Rufus P. Williams,
Chairman Health Department
Civics Committee.

PROGRESS IN AIGRETTE CRU- SADE

The club women in this vicinity who have labored earnestly to suppress the wearing of aigrettes will be gratified at the good news in the following press dispatch from New York:

"Less bird has been spilled to decorate the Easter bonnets of American women this year than ever in recent history." It was declared by experts in this city today. Based on careful examination of the millinery market as well as reports from agents throughout the country, this conclusion was announced at the headquarters of the National Association of Audubon Societies. That a minority among the women of this country still demands the scalps of the mother heron for aigrettes is shown by the illicit and secret traffic in these plumes, which officers of the Audubon Association assert is today being conducted by the plume hunters in sections of South America as well as southern Europe, Africa and Asia. The Audubon workers are today unable to effectively check the distribution from this city of aigrettes irrespective of where they come from to the women who still wear them. Wherever the milliners still persist in offering for sale such illicit goods, however, the Audubon Association is today taking active measures to stamp out the practice, which women's organizations in every town in the country are writing them they no longer countenance. Seven millinery establishments in Columbus and Cincinnati have just been convicted and heavily fined. It was reported by the Audubon agents today for having aigrettes in their possession for sale. Until this traffic is finally stopped and the plumage of all wild birds from this or any other country is no longer handled by the milliners, the Audubon workers declare their campaign will be fought on along these lines. This movement, they declare, is international, not sectional or local.

Among clubs recently admitted to the General Federation are the following: Monday Club of Needham, 35 members; president, Miss Elizabeth Willgoose; Brightelmston Club of Brighton and Allston, 287 members; president, Mrs. Ernest Lyon of Brookline.

There will be an Exhibition and Sale of Reed Baskets and Net Hammocks, made by Homcroft's Garden School Boys' Club, also a Sale and Exhibition of Hand Woven Fabrics, Copper, Silver Jewelry, etc., by the Homcroft Shops at the Homcroft's Guild, 143 Main street, Watertown, Friday and Saturday, April 17th and 18th.

D. A. R.

The April meeting of Lucy Jackson Chapter D. A. R. of Newton, was held the thirteenth, at the home of Mrs. L. C. Wadleigh, Jr., 432 Newtonville avenue, Newtonville. Mrs. Frank W. Pray and Mrs. A. L. Flanders entertained with her. The Regent, Mrs. Arthur P. Friend, presided at a short business meeting, after which a most interesting "Sketch of Paul Revere" was read by Mrs. L. Homer Woodbridge. The company then adjourned to the dining room, where a social hour was enjoyed.

MR. PICKARD REMEMBERED

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Newton Cemetery Corporation, held Monday, the following tribute to the memory of Hon. Edward L. Pickard was unanimously adopted and placed upon record:

Mr. Pickard has been a member of this Board for nine years, serving up on the Finance Committee, always attentive to his duties, a man of excellent judgment, generous impulses and public spirit. He was interested in making this dwelling-place of the dead attractive in appearance and comfortable to the bereaved, who trust within its earth the bodies of their loved ones.

We shall miss him from our deliberations but we shall miss more his warm grasp of the hand and cheerful word of greeting. This city has honored him with the highest place in its gift, but his memory will be held in tenderest recollections by those of his friends, and by many who had received from his hand generous and timely remembrances.

We place upon record this tribute to a good father, an enthusiastic lover of his American citizenship, a faithful public servant, a successful business man and with all exemplifying the best traits of Christian character.

GILDED DOME.

The unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court that the proposed three mill tax on intangible personal property is unconstitutional has killed all hope of immediate relief from the present burdens of taxation. The decision was not unexpected, although it was hoped that the Court would find that the equally demanded in the constitution might apply to each class of taxable property, and not to all classes alike. The next step will be the introduction of a constitutional amendment to pave the way for this desirable change in our taxation laws.

Representative Garcelon's bill to prohibit the partial use of an opposing party name, by regular candidates is speeding its way thru the Senate, in spite of the opposition of Senator Vahry. As it has already passed the House, it is probably safe bet that it will prevent "Independent Republican" nominations by Democratic candidates in this senatorial district next fall.

The Metropolitan Affairs committee has voted, eight to seven, to report a blanket boulevard bill, which ought to be buried when it reaches the Great and General Court. It is said to be cleverly drawn to receive the support of every boulevard petitioner in the Legislature. Its probable cost to the state and district is unknown, even to its advocates. One boulevard alone, designed to connect the north and south park systems, will plow a path thru the thickly settled portions of Cambridge and Somerville, and the land damages will amount to nearly a million. Representative Lothrop is a dissenter from this report, and has hopes that he can defeat the measure when it comes up for action. Boston's Finance commission has voted to oppose the proposed bill. The financial features are well worth considering, although definite details are lacking at this time. It is said that the cost is limited to an amount equal to the amount sinking fund charges now assessed by the district. This is understood to be $165,000 annually and will necessitate a corresponding increase in the assessments for the sinking fund and interest charges for the new loans. The heavy burden already placed on the Metropolitan district ought to warn our legislators, that is imprudent to add further luxuries in the way of parks and boulevards.

A bill has been favorably reported to allow police officers, one day off in thirty, without loss of pay and in addition to any vacation now allowed. It is problematical what action our representatives will take on this measure which will require two additional policemen in Newton, and will ultimately cost approximately $2300 each year. It would seem as if such a measure ought to have a referendum requiring acceptance by the city government.

APPOINTMENT DAY.

At the vesper service at Elliot
church, Newton, last Sunday afternoon
the members of Charles Ward Post, 62, G. A. R. were the guests of the observance being in recognition of Appointment Day. The post was well represented and there was a large audience. The pulpit was draped with the National flag and the colors of the post were in standards on the platform. The musical program was very fine consisting of the singing of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and
"The Star Spangled Banner," by the chorus. "The Vacant Chair," by a male quartet and "Barbara Frietie," by Miss Griggs. The invocation was by Rev. Newell C. Maynard, the scriptures were read by Chaplain Samuel P. Putnam of the Post and Rev. H. Grant Person made an eloquent address taking for a theme "A Good Soldier." He spoke of the lessons to be learned from the war, how time is healing the old wounds, uniting the north and south, and stated that the qualities of a good soldier are discipline, duty and devotion. He compared these qualities of the soldier with those necessary to make a good citizen and showed how they applied to both. The service closed with the singing of "My Country 'tis of Thee," by the audience.

Randall's military record is an excellent one, and his promotion is a deserving, as well as a popular one.
Friday, April 24th the Clafin Guard will, at the Battalion Drill, which will be held in So. Armory, Boston on this date, have the post of honor, acting as

What about the Negro armory? The Clafins are still living in anticipation.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN

The aldermen met on Monday evening and transacted considerable important business. $1200 was voted for an automobile for the Police department, $1300 authorized for employment of an inspector during the erection of the new Technical High School building and the taking of large park
areas in this city by the Metropolitan park commission favored by resolution.

Aldermen Bacon and Miller were the only members absent when President Weston called to order at 7:45 o'clock.

Hearings were held on removal of two trees on Lake avenue, on petitions of the Telephone company for attachments on Faxon and Crescent streets, and on taking land for sewer in Riverside street, at which no one appeared. At the hearing on petition of the Telephone company for poles
on Knowles street, Supt. Horton S.
Allen appeared in favor and Mr. H. W.
Morton spoke in opposition, and presented a remonstrance, which he said
was signed by all the property owners on the street. Letters in opposition were also received from Allan S.
White, W. W. Webber, Mrs. Amalia
Morton and F. T. Stuart.

At the hearing on the proposed widening of Washington street at Beacon street, Mr. H. J. Jaguth appeared for the aldermen in opposition saying that the plan would cut off the front
tier of lots of a valuable piece of property for the sole benefit of the street railway company. The plan will make a ten foot jog between this property and that next adjoining and Mr. Jaguth intimated that the city would have to pay dearly for the land.

An acknowledgement was received from Mrs. H. H. Hunt for the action taken by the board on the death of her husband.

Alderman Day stated that Mayor
Hutchinson had telegraphed Mayor Beck of Chelsea that Newton would render financial aid towards relieving the suffering caused by the great fire on Sunday, and on his motion a committee consisting of the Mayor and seven aldermen was authorized to solicit contributions from the citizens of Newton. Alderman Holmes, Avery, Palmer, Underwood, Bosson, Burr and Day were subsequently appointed.

The Mayor recommended appropriations of $1200 for an automobile
for the police department, and $1300
to authorize the employment of an inspector during the erection of the new Technical High School building, and these amounts were duly authorized.

The report of Ames D. Albee, ex-
p. accountant, giving the result of his examinations of the treasurer's books
was received.

The application of Gay & Proctor,
for permission to make additions of wood to the Fessenden School, ac-amounting to $25,000 was granted.

Notice of hearing before the railroad commissioners on the matter of six cent transfers from the General Manager of the New Haven Railroad
that services of certain railroad police officers had ceased, and of Daniel O'Connell that Democratic caucuses
would be held on April 22 were received.

These matters were assigned for hearings—On April 27, Persis T. Bray
for removal of trees, Cypress street,
May P. Cobb for removal of tree,
Lake avenue, and the Telephone Company for attachments on Abundant avenue, and Washington street. On May 11—Petition C. A. Person to keep and sell gasoline Allerton road, and James Ford to keep and sell gasoline
Commonwealth avenue, Ward 4.

Fireworks Co. to discharge fireworks
for special purposes off Needham street,
during the early evening, of E. A. Rolinson for renewal of automobile license and Mary McGovern for a transfer of intelligence office license to Dunklee
street, were granted.

These petitions were referred—H. F.

terment act on Walnut street, School

WHEAT

ARLINGTON WHEAT MEAL

Contains all the properties
needed in the food for the human body.

In the standard of purity. It will cure stomach troubles, relieve the fermentation caused by eating an overabundance of starchy food which causes acidity of the wheat used and the process of its manufacture are alone the secrets of its popularity. Rich in protein and albuminoids, it furnishes a food that is almost perfect in nutrition. It is better than any animal food.
Makes PERFECT BREAD and antacid firmness of flesh. Has been on the market 20 years, giving perfect satisfaction. Growers sell our wheat in sealed-at-the-mill packages, barrels,
and half-barrels.

ropolitan Park Reservation, J. B. Morrell, 833 Washington street.

On recommendation of committees
the sixth-class liquor license of W. L.
C. Nichols was revoked, leave to withcation to make alterations to 361

Washington street, the Telephone Co.

road and Whitlow road.

The select committee on six cent
fares on the street railway lines reported its action, stating that it had suggested to the railroad commission
that if the financial condition of the company made some change necessary in the price of fares on which transfers were issued, that the authority to increase be limited to one year.
Alderman Gray's remarks on Metropolitan parks will be given next week.

DANGER.

To the Editor of the Newton Graphic:
Last year the residents of the streets adjacent to the dump at the foot of Jefferson street, sent a protest
to the street department of Newton,
because of the smoke from burning trash, rags, bones and the like, and the foul odors arising from such deposits, which made their days unpleasant, and their nights unbearable.

Even with the thermometer at summer degrees it was often necessary to close all the windows to shut out the stench of the slowly smouldering filth. It seems incredible that any city will consent to such a state of things in a thickly populated district,
and especially one not given over to emigrants or the lower classes of laborers. The petition was received and the people assured that such a state of things would no longer continue, but this spring, the fire has been sending their clouds of smoke in-
to all our houses in the same old way,
washings are sprinkled with their soot
and ashes, and the waste paper which does not get burned disfigures and chokes our fences and back yards,
driven by the high winds from the dump which is continually receiving new loads from the weekly ash and paper carts.

Today in spite of the terrible warning of Sunday, in the midst of a wind almost as high as the one that sent ruin to Chelsea the smoke and cinders
are flying every where from the burning going on at the usual place.

It seems as if any one who had read
the papers of the last week and the suffering and devastation from a similar source, might take warning thereby.

One of the sufferers.

is unknown and has puzzled the physicians and specialists who have been called into the case. Funeral services will be held from the residence of her uncle, Mr. A. W. Rees and the interment will be at Eastport, Me., her na-

HUNNEWELL CLUB.

Tuesday morning I received an appeal for contributions of clothing for the destitute of Chelsea. I at once addressed a circular to the members of the Hunnewell Club asking for old cast off clothing that could be worn by man, woman, or child. In response to that request I have already received and forwarded 51 packages. This clothing has been sent to a firm in Boston, who have set apart a room in their building, where the clothing is delivered, sorted, and distributed to the sufferers, who come there to be supplied. Many of the employees of this store were victims of the fire and personally know hundreds of people who have nothing in the world but
the clothing which was on their backs.
They are all worthy, respectable
American families and many of them would suffer greatly before they would stand in line to get clothing from the general supply station. I have also received one check for $50.00 which I have forwarded to Mayor Hutchinson.
Anyone in Newton wishing to contribute clothing to these people may leave packages at my residence, 125 Vernon street, Newton, and may feel assured that their contribution will do immediate and the most possible good.
Dr. M. E. Gleason.

A Master Baker knows his business. If he didn't he would never get beyond "learning his trade." The bakers we employ are all experienced men, drilled in the latest methods of successful bread making. Efficiency here means economy, hence we can give you better bread for the same money than a more wasteful establishment. In fact we believe we can bake and deliver bread of equal quality, at your door cheaper than you can bake it yourself. Let us prove this to you.

DOG AND CAT STORY

The story of how a dog was alleged to have chased a cat around a house in Newton Highlands, once getting its teeth within a half-inch of the animal, and how the dead body of the cat, which has been prized as a pet, was picked up on a lawn a little while afterward was told in the police court Tuesday morning.

How this same dog is said to have "bit, barked and howled" to such an extent that neighbors were disturbed will be told in a session of the court today.

Clarence H. Lingham, whose home is at 309 Lake avenue, appeared before Judge Kennedy on a charge of keeping a biting dog, which, on April 11, was alleged to have chased Mrs. Elizabeth C. Bragdon's cat.

Albert A. Shedd, a neighbor, testified that the dog had a bad reputation in the neighborhood. "He was all right up to a few weeks ago, but he got into bad company," declared Mrs. Bragdon.

Counsel for Mr. Lingham then objected to this testimony on the ground that his client was charged with keeping a "biting" dog. The court thought the testimony should be allowed, but counsel still objected.

After a consultation a new complaint, charging that on March 30 Mr. Lingham's dog "bit, barked and howled" to the annoyance of Mr. Shedd, was issued. The court discharged the case in which it was alleged the dog annoyed Mrs. Bragdon.

There were numerous neighbors in the court room, some of whom it was said were ready to testify that the dog "bit," "howled" and did other annoying things. Other witnesses present, it was stated, were ready to testify that they had never seen the dog act in any but a most gentlemanly way.

POLITICAL NOTES

The twelfth district Republican convention met in Wesleyan hall, Boston, last Tuesday afternoon and unanimously elected Senator W. O. Faxon of Stoughton and Town Clerk E. W. Baker of Brookline, as delegates to the Chicago convention and George L. Barnes of Weymouth and George F. Birch of Milford as alternates. Hon. Samuel L. Powers was a prominent factor in the proceedings. The following resolution was adopted, with a few negative votes. Gen. W. F. Draper voting the opposition:

Resolved, That while the Republicans of the twelfth congressional district of Massachusetts, assembled to select delegates to the Republican National Convention at Chicago, do not desire to bind those delegates by pledges or instructions, but wish always that they should act for the best interests of the party according to their judgment, they do deem it proper that the delegates know that the Republicans of this district have a decided preference for the nomination of William H. Taft of Ohio for President of the United States.

COLD STORAGE FOR FURS

Lamson & Hubbard's new plant in Roxbury is one of the finest in the country.

At this season of the year, when people are leaving off their furs, the question arises what to do with them through the warm weather. No matter how new or carefully kept the home, moths are liable to find their way to the oily cells at the roots of the fur, there to work unseen and unsuspected until the article is damaged beyond repair. Cold storage is the proper and safe method of protecting furs in the warm season.

There are different kinds of cold storage. That employed by Lamson & Hubbard, furriers and hatters, at its Roxbury storage rooms is new, and has been pronounced by experts to be perfect. Furs, clothing, rugs, etc., are received at the owner's valuation.

The firm calls for and delivers all articles to be stored and gives receipts. After being cleaned and repaired at the firm's store at 92 Bedford street, the articles are conveyed to the storage rooms in Roxbury. These rooms are absolutely fireproof, moisture-proof because of the mineral wool used between the 36-inch walls and the English enamelled brick lining, and absolutely burglar-proof, as a modern safe door provides the only means of entrance or exit from the rooms. The rooms are dustproof, because the floors are marble, the walls of enamelled brick and the ceilings of cement. All garment racks are of metal.

The ventilation system is perfect. The air is sucked from the room, drawn through a coil of pipes which abstracts the moisture, is then cooled to a temperature of 28 degrees and sent back to the rooms. This system creates a strong draught, which causes the fur to stir restlessly, so that when the garments are removed in the fall they look better than when they were delivered to the firm.

Miss Doris Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hill, and Roland F. Gammons 24, treasurer of the West Newton Savings bank, were married Monday evening at the home of the bride, 336 Cabot street, Newtonville.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, pastor of the First Unitarian church, West Newton. Miss Marjorie Hill, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The best man was J. L. Gammons, brother of the groom. A largely attended reception took place from 8 to 10. Mr. and Mrs. Gammons, upon their return from a trip, will reside at 59 Brookside avenue.

ONCE.

Dependent for many years on an antiquated system by which it was necessary to call up each station house separately, thus losing much valuable time, the Philadelphia Department of Public Safety, which has charge of the city's police, recently installed a system of simultaneous telephony by which a message may be sent from a single transmitter to thirty-five points at once.

The wires are so connected that, by throwing a single switch, all the stations are brought into the circuit and the words spoken by the operator at the central station are heard at each of the outlying stations simultaneously. The operators are provided with a harness holding both transmitter and receiver to their head so that their hands may be left free to operate typewriters to take down messages.

When the switch at the central is not thrown into the circuit the telephone may be used to converse with a single station as usual without necessitating the use of another telephone. Similarly it is also possible to have a message come from any station and go to all the others simultaneously without waiting to be repeated at the central office.

The system has been perfected by a Philadelphia, after ten years' experimenting. It is said that a Vienna newspaper has a somewhat similar apparatus by means of which it sends out news by telephone to upward of 800 subscribers.

THWING-BANKS.

Miss Louise M. Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Banks of 49 Elmwood street, and Chester R. Thwing of this city were married in Grace church Sunday evening in the presence of immediate relatives.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Laurens MacLure, the rector. Because of recent illness of the bride the wedding was a very quiet affair. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Lillian Banks, a sister, was maid of honor. After a trip Mr. and Mrs. Thwing will reside in Belgrade, Me.

THEATRES

Hollis St. Theatre.—Robert Edeson, who has come to be regarded as a very great Boston favorite, will play his annual engagement in that city at the Hollis commencing next Monday evening, April 27. He will be seen this year in "Classmates" a play of West Point life. The piece is regarded as Mr. Edeson's greatest triumph. It gives him an opportunity to portray one of those fascinating military characters in which he finds such a prolific field for his line ability. He has the roll of Lieutenant Duncan Irving and the character is said to be an ideal one. The subject matter of the play is in itself intensely interesting in that it portrays certain phases of life at the National Military Academy at West Point. Mr. Edeson's engagement will be for two weeks only and he will play the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. Considering his widespread popularity and the excellence of his present play he is assured a most cordial reception when he comes to the Hollis.

Grand Opera House.—"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," made famous by the late Richard Mansfield, will be the attraction at the Boston Grand Opera House next week. An especially high class company has been engaged for the production, one which is expected to surpass any company that ever played "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." In this city at popular prices. The play has been carefully prepared, and a complete set of new scenery is to be carried. Matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Friday night will be "hoolidess" amateur night.

The Battalion drill which was to have been held Friday evening in South Armory, Boston, has been indefinitely postponed; as the Armory is being utilized as a temporary home for a number of refugees from Chelsea.

A number of the men from the Guard participated in the Marathon run held on Monday, as attendants to the runners.

Through the courtesy of Col. Talbot of the 1st Corps Cadets, the officers of the Guard have received invitations to attend an informal gathering tonight at their magnificent Armory on Columbus avenue.

Louis Daniels and Coulter passed successfully with high rating the examination recently held by the State Service School for Line officers.

Scientific Arch Supports

AT Reasonable Prices

BROKEN ARCH

NATURAL ARCH

Pain in the ankle, instep, knee or back is frequently caused by a broken or weakened arch in the foot. While relief is easy to find, yet many, misinformed, seek to relieve this condition by wearing arch supports which are stiff and unsympathetic. The bones of the foot have the same action as the bones of the hand, therefore an Arch Support that is resilient and will respond to every action of the foot, and still retain its gentle sustaining power on the muscles, is what is wanted. Such a support will give almost instant relief and a foot comfort that is otherwise unknown. The JORDAN ARCH SUPPORT is the only one on the market that brings this relief. Owing to the enormous demand for these goods we are enabled to sell them at the extremely low price of $2.00 PER PAIR. Send for pamphlet. In sending by mail state size of shoe. Checks out of 10 of Massachusetts include 10 cents for exchange.

It is with considerable reluctance that we venture to oppose the strong desires of such an influential set of gentlemen, as are behind the project to induce the Metropolitan commission to accept large areas of land in Newton and Brookline for park purposes. The plan to preserve these beautiful areas, particularly the Hammond's pond district, is entirely commendable, but the financial aspects of the situation, demand attention. In this connection, we do not believe the aldermen of this city acted wisely, in passing, without careful investigation, the resolution in which the city of Newton is placed on record as favoring this matter. Newton has a deep interest in the various metropolitan projects, as our share of the expenses are large and constantly increasing. At the present time the district is under obligations amounting to the enormous sum of over $66,000,000. Newton paid last year, out of a rate of $16.40 per $1,000, the sum of $1.83 for metropolitan purposes, over one tenth of the entire levy. The plan now under contemplation, would add fully $400,000 as soon as authorized of which our share would be practically four per cent. In view of the imminent danger of the district being saddled with an unknown amount of debt for boulevard purposes, now being urged upon the Legislature, residents of this city should not embarrass our representatives who are fighting that measure, with such a back fire as this proposed improvement would surely start.

Again it is hard to see the advantages which the connecting link between the Hammonds pond district and the Charles river parkway will bring to this city. No one would ever think of passing from the Middlesex Fells region to the Blue Hill reservation by such a round about course as the committee have in view. It is a strained attempt on its face, to make an arbitrary connection in order to save the consciences of those in authority, by the claim that this taking would connect existing parkways.

We believe, further, that our friends in Chestnut hill do not fully realize what it would mean to that delightful village, to be in such close contact with a metropolitan reservation, so near the city of Boston. It is conceivable that the future would see large crowds of all kinds of people, thronging thru that village, trespassing upon the beautiful estates, littering the streets with rubbish, and being soothed and entertained by a paternal park commission, aided by a complaisant legislature, with so called band concerts, swan boats on the pond, and other alleged attractions which are not only possible, but extremely probable.

In place of this possibility, we believe that the residents of Chestnut hill should ask that the Hammonds pond region be taken by the city for park purposes. Its future would then be under local control, and the evident desire of those interested that the present conditions continue, would be more nearly realized. We believe that it would be possible to make some agreement with the Lowell estate, which owns the larger part of this district, by which the land could be deeded to the city and leased back to the estate, thus ensuring ultimate public ownership, without incurring any large expense.

The metropolitan movement, we believe is against the best interests of this city.

MISS JONES DEAD.

Miss Mary P. Jones, for many years a resident of Waban park, Newton, died last Wednesday at her home in Bangor, Me. Miss Jones was a native of Massachusetts and 71 years of age. She was the daughter of the late George H. and Alice Demond Jones. Her father was prominent in town affairs many years ago and Jones hall in the Newton library was named for him. Miss Jones was a member of Eliot church and an active worker in church affairs for many years. The funeral services are held this afternoon at the Newton Cemetery chapel in charge of Rev. Dr. Wolcott Calkins.

C. E. CONVENTION

The 19th annual convention of Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor of Middlesex Co was held at Putnam's Hall, Apr. 24th, at the First Congregational church, Natick. The general topic was "Applied Christianity." The topics and speakers were: "The Endeavorer at Home and Abroad," Rev. Chas. H. Daniels, D. D.; "Applied Christianity for the 20th Century Business Man," Mr. Franklin W. Gause of Newton; "Caesar's Things," Hon. Geo. H. Little, Ex-Gov. of R. I.; "Christian Endeavor and Church Life," Rev. J. Spencer Voorhees of Adams; "Saving Souls for Christ," Rev. O. B. Gifford of Brookline.

The Newton C. E. Union had the largest delegation outside of the local society, 101 being present.

URGED TO TAKE PARK LANDS

A large gathering of prominent residents of Newton, Chestnut Hill and Brookline appeared at the hearing given by the Metropolitan Improvement Commission at 20 Beacon street, Boston, last Wednesday afternoon, on the proposition that the commission recommend the taking of large areas of land in Brookline and Newton for park purposes, connecting the Metropolitan systems, north and south of Boston. The plan as outlined by Mr. James D. Colt of Chestnut Hill, who marshalled the forces of the petitioners, began at the West Roxbury park way and extended across Brookline, including 120 acres of park lands owned by that town, the district known as Lost Pond, something like 200 acres around Hammond's pond, thence across Commonwealth avenue, and thru the Edmonds and Shannon properties to Cabot woods, then by Cabot Park, Boyd's Pond park to the Charles river reservation at Watertown. Mr. Colt said the assessed valuation of the lands to be taken was about $271,000 and he thought that the entire project would involve something like $400,000 for land takings. The plan had been thoroughly considered by a representative committee and complied with three essentials. The scheme must commend itself both to the Metropolitan Improvement Commission and the Metropolitan Park Commission. It must be a necessary part of the Metropolitan park system and it must be feasible at the lowest possible cost. The total area taken is 502 acres and the extreme length is nearly 7 miles. The plan includes some four or five small houses of little value. The beauty of the woods and ledges around Hammond's pond dwelt upon by Mr. Colt and the fact that the present ice houses there would be undisturbed. He believed the time to make this improvement was now as there were signs of a rapid increase in population and consequent erection of new buildings.

Mr. John G. Wright of Chestnut Hill spoke of the importance of securing the wild lands about Hammond's pond, as a duty to the generations yet to come. He said it was almost a crime to even risk losing this land for such a purpose. He favored keeping the land in its present wild condition.

Hon. J. M. W. Hall of Newton Centre said there were so many arguments in favor of the project that he could hardly think of an objection. He claimed it would be very difficult to find any city in the United States with such an attractive spot for a park. He thought the land ought to be left in all its simplicity and in all its beauty.

Mr. Richard M. Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill spoke earnestly of his deep interest in the project. He admitted that he had lived for 48 years in this vicinity, all his life in fact. He recalled the tremendous changes which had taken place in Chestnut Hill and its rapid changes into a suburban district, with the wooded lands fast disappearing. He said that this district while attractive for its scenic beauty was not desirable for the best residential purposes, and feared an influx of cheaper buildings. Mr. Saltonstall expressed his abhorrence of the automobile and the danger to those who used the public streets for walking, driving or riding. He wanted this reservation so that there could be some relief from the automobile. He was equally emphatic in his belief that the boulevard was not desirable and a constant source of expense. He closed with the statement that this was a movement by public spirited men, and not a real estate scheme.

Mr. A. P. Carter spoke for the Civic Federation of Newton and letters were read from Congressman John W. Weeks, Henry LaFavour and resolution of the Selectmen of Brookline.

Alderman Frank A. Day suggested if there was a forward stand to be taken in the way of extensions of the park system, this project ought to be given a front place. Personally he felt that the Metropolitan parks should stand still for at least five years. Others who spoke were Judge R. R. Bishop, Francis W. Lee, Albert L. Lincoln, Dana Estes and City Solicitor Slocum of Newton.

Mr. Gargan of the commission asked many questions of the speakers and finally received an affirmative reply from Mr. Colt to the question, if the petitioners would be satisfied with a recommendation from this commission that the lands be acquired and that no further expense be incurred for five years.

Among the Newton men noted in the audience were Mayor Hutchinson, Aldermen Allison Burr, B. P. Gray, E. P. Bosson, C. F. Avery Hon. H. E. Bothfield, Hon. J. M. W. Hall, Judge Bishop, H. J. Curison, J. D. Colt, W. S. Slocum, A. D. Claffin, H. J. Kellaway, A. P. Carter, A. E. Alvord, Wm. E. Parker, R. M. Saltonstall, E. A. Brown and F. W. Lee.

ORDINATION

A large number of relatives and friends gathered at Eliot church last evening to witness the ordination of Robert Meacham Davis to the Christian Ministry. Mr. Davis is the son of the late Rev. Dr. William H. Davis, a former pastor of Eliot church, and is to become associate pastor of the Brick Presbyterian church in New York city. The council was held in the afternoon at 4 o'clock at which Rev. Dr. T. P. Prudden was moderator and Rev. Henry B. Oxnard, clerk. After the council meeting supper was served to the delegates and in the evening the ordination took place. Rev. Dr. Prudden presided and gave the invocation, after the minutes of the council had been read by the clerk, Rev. H. Grant Person read the scriptures, Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton of Brookline, N. Y., preached the sermon. Rev. Shepherd Knapp of Worcester made the ordaining prayer, Rev. Dr. Albert E. Dunning, Editor of the Congregationalist, the charge to the minister and Rev. Arley B. ## CIVIC CLUB

The spring meeting of the Civic Club of Newton, composed of present and past members of the city government, was held at the Newton clubhouse, Newtonville, on Wednesday evening, Hon. Henry B. Bothfield, the president, was in the chair, and about forty members and friends were present.

Prof. Charles J. Bullock of Harvard University, chairman of the recent Commission on Taxation, addressed the club on matters of taxation, with particular reference to the proposed three mill tax on intangible property. The present system Prof. Bullock said had been termed confiscation tempered with favoritism and tax dodging. He declared it was impossible to make people pay from 40 to 50% of their income from personal property in the form of taxes. Prof. Bullock showed by charts and figures, the gradual separation of the ratios of amounts of personal property and real property during the past century. Beginning in 1804, when the personal property paid more than 50% of the total levy of Boston, down to 1907, when the personal property paid but 18 1/2% of the levy of Boston. This ratio Prof. Bullock believed, would eventually drop to 5% if the present system of taxation was continued. Illustrations of the working of the present system of taxation in Ohio, showed clearly the results to be attained here in Massachusetts if our tax laws were fully enforced. Prof. Bullock said the commission were informed that the three mill proposition was unconstitutional, but believed the sole remedy was to amend the constitution. With reference to Newton, Prof. Bullock said that figures showed that we were better off than Boston in that our personal property, which was 31% of the total in 1871, had dropped to only 25% in 1907. He estimated that we were not getting but one tenth of the intangible property there was in the city, and knew of cases where persons taxed for less than $50,000 might be taxed for a million without difficulty. In answer to questions, Prof. Bullock gave some interesting reasons why real estate should bear a higher proportion of the tax than intangible property.

At the conclusion of the address, light refreshments were served.

NEWTON HOSPITAL

On Tuesday evening, Mr. W. C. Bray, President of the Newton Hospital Corporation, gave a complimentary dinner at the Brae Burn Club to the physicians who are members of the Newton staff. There were also present a number of the members of the Executive and Finance Committees.

An indication of the interest of this gathering was shown by the fact that every physician and surgeon on the staff was present, with the exception of one who was ill. This gathering was of great value to the Hospital because it was the first time that the Hospital staff, Executive and Finance Committee had come together. It is evident that a better acquaintance on the part of the staff members, as well as on the part of the business men connected with the Hospital will redound to the advancement of the institution.

On May 1, there will be a dedication of the Founders Memorial building which is to be presented at that time to the Hospital Corporation by its donor, Mr. Mellen Bray. Among others who are to speak at the Dedication service is ex-Governor John D. Long. This building is perhaps the most generous gift of a citizen of Newton to any public service institution in our city and demonstrates the appreciation of every resident of the city, and it is hoped that those who feel this appreciation will visit the Hospital on May 1, either in the afternoon or in the evening. The Dedication exercises will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The buildings will be open for visitors both afternoon and evening.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The school committee held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, with Mr. Gorham presiding. Mr. W. W. Montgomery, of Charles Ward Post, was granted a hearing and asked the co-operation of the committee regarding Memorial Day exercises in the public schools.

The superintendent submitted a report on the condition of the various school buildings, relative to danger from fire.

A petition was received for change on name of the present Thompson school.

The resignations of Mrs. V. E. Kimball and Fred L. Thompson of the High school and of Ethel J. Paine of the Wolcott school were accepted to take effect at the end of the school year. The recommendation for appointment of Michael J. Murray as supervisor of manual training, was referred to a committee.

A lengthy report was received of the Evening classes just closed.

Keith's Theatre.—What will be looked upon by the most of the patrons of Keith's Theatre as the biggest event of a most eventful season is due to occur next week. It is nothing less than the commencement of a brief engagement by the greatest drawing card Boston vaudeville has ever known—Harry Houdini. He has invented several new stunts, the most startling of which consists of being confined in a mammoth can filled with water, necessitating his being submerged before the cover can be locked on. It is the most marvellous feat he has ever performed. He will be open to accept a number of challenge tests during his stay, which will be for two weeks only. The surrounding bill will include the La Scala Sextette, an organization of Italian operatic singers that has never been excelled in vaudeville, Claude and Fannie Usher in their sketch, "Fagin's Decision", one of the big hits of the season. Marion Garson, a dainty comedienne, Apollon's Animals, a troupe of performing quadrupeds, made up of bears, monkeys, dogs, and the only trained ant-eater; Joe Deming, a clever monologist; The Kemps, in a novel ragtime turn; Delmore and Onida, who do a capital Japanese perch act; the La Velles, acrobatic dancers, and new Kinetograph pictures.

Assisting in the diningroom were Miss Wolcott of Brookline, Miss Rolfe, Miss Black, Miss Caldwell, Miss Cheney of Newtonville and Miss Whittemore of Newton Highlands.

KIMBALL-GRIFFIN.

In the presence of guests from this city and Lewiston, Me., the wedding of Miss Bertha G. Griffin of this city and William A. Kimball of Lewiston, Me., took place Saturday evening at the home of her father, George F. Griffin, 49A Carleton street.

Two maidens of honor attended Miss Griffin, they being Miss Bernice and Miss Mary McLaughlin, both of Lewiston. The best man was Mr. Joseph S. Paine of Lewiston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. M. Simmonds, pastor of the First Baptist church, Waltham. After a trip Mr. and Mrs. Kimball will reside in Lewiston.

A SAD CASE.

One of the most pathetic cases with which the police and court here have had to deal in many months was given a private hearing recently by Judge Kennedy, when Mrs. Rosanna Carroll of Newton Highlands was committed to the Westboro Insane hospital.

Chief Mitchell, patrolman Moulton and Miss Montgomery of the society for the prevention of cruelty to children visited the home of the Carroll family, 1243 Walnut street, corner of Boylston street. They found conditions so alarming that they made a second trip with patrolman Gray and Sergt. Clay, conveying Mrs. Carroll and her seven children, ranging in ages from seven months to 14 years, to police headquarters, where they were placed in the care of Mrs. Ella E. Mason, the matron.

In the private hearing it was stated that Mrs. Carroll frequently wandered about Newton Highlands, carrying the seven-months old child clad in nothing but a thin garment in the coldest weather. When the house was visited the only food found was a loaf of bread and some tinned apples. One of the older children said the smallest baby had had nothing but some bread and milk which one of the children had procured in the morning. One of the other small children had no clothing. The father, James Carroll, is employed as a blacksmith.

After Mrs. Carroll had been adjudged by physicians who examined her as mentally unsound and ordered committed to the Westboro institution, it was stated that the children will be turned over to the state board of charity.

A NEW AGRICULTURAL & TRADES SCHOOL.

To Open in September.

For a number of years great need has been felt by the people of this state for an agricultural and trades school where their sons may learn trades and practical farming in a four years course, and become successful farmers and tradesmen.

This school that will open in the fall will be called Smith Agricultural & Trade School, for Oliver Smith, a wealthy Hatfield farmer who founded the Smith charities in North Hampton, and an uncle of Sophia Smith, the founder of Smith College. Mr. Smith left a sum of $30,000 for the school about 60 years ago to be used for starting this institution of practical learning.

Mr. Smith designed that the school should be primarily to aid boys to obtain instruction in agriculture and technical subjects. The school has a good set of farm buildings, an income from the will of Mr. Smith and state of $22,000 yearly. One large building and several smaller ones suitable, for shops and for farm purposes, and a small cottage near the main building and about fifty acres of land.

After buying the farm and lands the superintendent sought for a president for the institution and Mr. Rufus W. Stimpson, now president of Connecticut Agricultural College was chosen. Mr. Stimpson will retire on the end of the college term in June, and will move to Northampton in July. He is a native of Palmer and is 40 yrs. old. He graduated from Harvard in 1895, and took a post graduate course at Yale and has been the head of the Connecticut Agricultural College for a period of six years.

All of the faculty have not been chosen yet but will be before opening of school in September. This school is a school which will do its part in turning young men and young women into successful business farmers and home owners. Any person interested in this school for their boy can address Rufus W. Stimpson, Connecticut Agricultural College, Storrs, Conn.

LAROSE-FORTE.

Announcement of a wedding of considerable interest to many Newton people has just become known in this city. The bride is Miss Eugenie E. Forte, the daughter of Ezra Forte of West Newton, and the groom is Louis F. LaRose, former physical director in the Newton Y. M. C. A. They were married at Gargouin, Canada, zone, March 20, by Chaplain J. H. Sobey.

Miss Forte was a former pupil of the Newton high school. She is well known among the young people, particularly in West Newton, where she had always made her home up to a few weeks ago.

Mr. LaRose is a native of Dayton, O. Last October he went to Panama to become physical director of the first Y. M. C. A. started in Panama at the suggestion and expense of the United States government. It was of his successful work in the Newton Association that he was selected by the international committee for the important post in the Canal zone. Word received here states that his work in Panama has been most successful.

Before coming to Newton in October, 1904, Mr. LaRose had for two years been assistant director of the Central Y. M. C. A. in Chicago. Previously he had attended the Chicago training school. When Mr. LaRose left here for Panama last autumn his engagement to Miss Forte became known to many of the association members. They were given to understand at that time that Mr. LaRose would return to Newton in the coming summer and that their marriage would take place at that time. A few weeks ago Miss Forte bade her friends in this city goodbye and sailed for Panama. The wedding took place immediately after her arrival.

AFFILIATED MEMBERSHIP.

A Protest From West Newton. It might be inferred from a statement in last week's Watchman made by Rev. E. F. Snell, that the action of the Lincoln Park Baptist Church was the hearty unanimous vote of the church. Last there be a misapprehension permit me to add that more than thirty members of the church, including two of its deacons, have signed the following protest:

"We the undersigned, members of the Lincoln Park Baptist church, earnestly protest against the action of the church in departing from the well known and long established principles and practices of the Baptist denomination and affirm our devotion to those principles and practices and our steadfast purpose to adhere to them. This action is a source of deepest grief and sorrow to a large number who are devotedly attached to the church and have in some cases devoted thirty or more years of the best of their lives to its interest and now suddenly find themselves without a congenial church home."

Loyalty to Christ has compelled this company to organize a weekly meeting of prayer. Mr. Snell disclosed to his committee a much more radical purpose and suggested two more extreme steps that he insisted should follow later. These two latter propositions were withheld from the church when it was called to act. Possibly had the church fully understood his purpose different action would have resulted.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO

Sometimes when sickness is in the family and a physician has been called in and a prescription written, you have noticed the name of some particular drug printed on the paper on which the doctor writes the prescription.

This does not mean that you are compelled to take your prescription to the druggist whose name appears on the paper.

It is recognized the world over that a patient has the privilege of taking the prescription to any drug store that he prefers.

The prescription department in our store is always watched over by a registered pharmacist; a doctor's prescriptions are always filled exactly according to the way he intended they should be filled.

THEATRES

Tremont Theatre.—Go see "The Man of the Hour" at the Tremont Theatre. "The Man of the Hour" is neither dull, preachy or morbid. It is aglow with as buoyant and infectious humor as George Broadhurst ever wrote into his merriest farces. There is a sensible straightforward, appealing love story—just such a love story as real men and women figure in, not the mawkish sentimentality that you find between average book covers. It is a real, vital, wholesome human play, and this is why more than 500,000 New Yorkers and 200,000 New Englanders have applauded it. There is scarcely a community in this country where the conditions portrayed do not exist to greater or less extent. There is no good citizen, man or woman, to whom its theme is not fascinating.

Boston Theatre.—At the Boston Theatre next week the long promised production of "Shenandoah" for which preparations have been in progress for some months will be made. It is Manager Morison's purpose to make this presentation of the drama the most elaborate ever seen in this city and stage director Snader has planned some novel realistic effects which will add greatly without doubt to the success of this production. The cast will introduce the entire strength of the company with many extra people including a large number of veterans who saw service in the late civil war. It is expected that Monday evening's performance will call out a large delegation of veterans as it is known as "Grand Army" night. The patrons of the Boston Theatre stock company will learn with pleasure that after a well deserved rest Eleanor Gordon, the leading woman of the company who has gained such a host of friends during the present season, is to resume her appearance with the organization on Monday, May 4th, in the first production by a stock company of David Belasco's great play "The Girl from the Golden West."

Orpheum Theatre.—For the closing bill at the Orpheum the management will make that of the week of April 27 one in which every number will be of distinctive merit. The big comedy feature will be Al Leach, and his Three Rosebuds, presenting their most amusing and humorous sketch entitled "Examination Day" in which Mr. Leach takes the part of the school teacher, and three exceedingly good comedians are the scholars. Another important act is the Four Fords, unquestionably the best dancers on the American stage. Carson and Willard are two of the best known German comedians and parody singers in vaudeville; Keefe and Pearl will appear in a sketch, with singing and harp solos. Arthur Rigby the minstrel monologist will have new material; Dunn and Francis will appear in a comedy sketch; Silbini and Grovini will combine admirable tumbling, juggling and acrobatic work, and there will be some splendid pictures on the Kinetograph.

So great a success was Leslie Harris on his debut in Boston recently that he has been induced to return for a brief engagement of three performances in Jordan Hall. He opens there on Wednesday evening, April 23, following with an entirely different program on Thursday evening, April 24, and a third program on Saturday, April 25. In each case Mr. Harris will hold the centre of the stage as pianist, humorist, character sketch artist and author, and in each program he will keep his audience alive to his great skill as an entertainer and impersonator. In England he is pre-eminent among many other equally clever actor-musicians, and it is apparent that he has brought his fame to this country, and that he will always find himself at home here, and especially in Boston. At Mr. Harris's three appearances in Jordan Hall he will say farewell to Boston, leave immediately for England to start upon a tour through Europe. Seats are now on sale at the Jordan Hall ticket office.

PI ETA SHOW

Great interest is being manifested in the coming Pi Eta Show at Playhouse Hall, West Newton, next Wednesday evening.

The show is called "The Title Seekers" and is full of amusing situations and songs with a swing.

The plot hangs about the efforts of a rich American who is seeking a title for his daughter Marjorie. Her sweetheart follows her through Switzerland to Paris, where his disguise as a count is discovered, and his arrest followed by the father. It is found that he has suddenly become a duke. All's well.

Heinrich Weider, a waiter, is played by H. J. Murphy, '08, whose tenor voice is widely known through his work as soloist in the "Varsity glee club. His songs, "Elfin" and "Barcarolle," are well suited to his voice. His duet with his brother—"Spring Song"—is also said to be fine.

Ray Murphy, the author, has other laurels as leading lady. His make-up is superb, and he has several songs, which are the hits of the show.

G. L. Yocum '07 as Phil, the hero, and P. P. Marion '08 and H. G. Tomlin '09 as his running mates, make up one of the funniest trios to be seen on the undergraduate stage. The two latter sing "Stories" over and over again.

L. M. Potter, '08, as Maria Grumble, a ubiquitous spinster, puts on the finishing touches when he sings "I Just Can't Make My Face Believe," and several other imitations of well known comedy stars.

The dancing of the chorus, a "win some bery of boy beauties," is spirited beyond the average. The Pony Ballet, for many years a feature of the Pi Eta shows, is a fine bit of dancing and a "Drinking Song," sung by a double quartet, winds up a good show. A large number of prominent ladies are among the Newton patronesses.

CHELSEA BENEFIT

The Colonial Concert given last year so successfully in the assembly hall of the High school, will be repeated in the near future for the benefit of the Chelsea Relief fund. All those who took part last year are requested to send their names at once to Mrs. Geo. F. Lowell, Newtonville, or to Mr. Horace M. Walton, Newtonville.

LODGES.

The Spinsters' Club of Boynton Lodge, U. O. I. O. L., presented the comedy, "The Spinsters' Return," in Dennison Hall, Newtonville, last evening. The various parts were well taken by members of the lodge and performance was followed by dancing.

In Odd Fellows' Hall, West Newton, last Tuesday evening, a supper was served by the lady members of the Sewing Circle connected with Tenynson Rebekah Lodge. Following the supper the degree was worked on several candidates.

Women's Clubs.

Edited by Miss Grace M. Burt.

Dr. Franklin White of Boston gave one of the most interesting and instructive lectures of the year before the Waban Woman's Club on Monday afternoon. His subject was "Food Values." He discussed the question of food from the standpoint of its chemical composition, its digestibility, its heat giving properties and cost. Mrs. Frank A. Arend was the hostess of the day. The annual meeting on May 4th will be most important, as the club is then to vote on the revision of the old constitution, which has proved inadequate to the growth of the club and village.

A meeting of the Pierian Club was held with Mrs. Thomas Ryder on Wednesday afternoon, April 22nd. Papers were read by Mrs. Albert Temperley, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Willard and Mrs. Churchill.

The Newton Ladies' Home Circle will hold an all day sewing meeting at the New Unitarian church, West Newton, Wednesday, Apr. 29th to sew for the Chelsea sufferers. All members are requested to attend. Basket lunch.

The Drama Reading Club of Waban will meet with Mrs. Pietro Isola on Monday morning, April 27, Bernard Shaw's "Philanderer" will be read and discussed. Mrs. James will be in charge.

The Social Science Club held its regular meeting on Wednesday morning at the Hunnewell Club. A sum of money was voted for the relief of the Chelsea sufferers and articles of clothing were solicited. The paper of the morning was given by Mr. Thomas Weston, Jr. upon "The Juvenile Court." Mr. Weston told particularly of the work of Judge Lindsay of Denver, but also touched upon what Massachusetts is doing and the work of Judge Parker of Boston. Two theories form the underlying principle of the juvenile court; first, that the children have not been taught obedience by their parents, so that the court must perform the parental function; and secondly, that no child under sixteen should be treated as a criminal; the court should help to form character rather than at a later time to attempt to reform it. Massachusetts was the first state to establish the probation system, but it was not until 1906 that laws were enacted providing for a distinctively juvenile court.

The Newtonville Woman's Guild held its annual meeting on Tuesday, April 21st. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden; Vice-presidents, Mrs. A. P. Walker, Mrs. H. H. Carter, Mrs. Geo. H. Talbot, Mrs. P. T. Benner, Mrs. F. J. Hurd, Mrs. C. F. Daniels, Mrs. E. J. Fessenden, Mrs. E. P. Hatch, Mrs. J. A. Fenno, Mrs. W. T. Rich, Mrs. A. H. Terrell, Mrs. Allen Cady; recording secretary, Mrs. John Martin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. M. Bridges; treasurer, Mrs. G. P. Cooke; two new directors (Terms expire in 1912) Mrs. C. R. Lynde, Mrs. C. C. Briggs; auditor, Mrs. F. S. Sherman. Tea was served by Executive Board, Mrs. E. P. Hurd, chairman.

The Monday Club of Newton Highlands considered "Modern Women Writers" at its meeting on Tuesday afternoon. A paper was given on the general subject and two shorter ones upon Mary Wilkins Freeman and Mrs. Humphrey Ward. The club will conclude its year's work with the annual meeting next week at Miss Clara White's on Centre street.

At the meeting of the Social Science Club on April 22 Miss Grace M. Burt will give a paper entitled, "Journalism on a Mountain-Top." Guests may be invited.

The annual meeting of the Newton Federation will be held at the Central Congregational Church on Tuesday, May 5, at 10.30. The morning session will be devoted to the usual reports of officers and committees and the afternoon session will be held at 2.30, at which a program in the interests of the "Anti-Tuberculosis Movement" will be presented. Dr. Edwin A. Locke will speak of State and City Conditions, and the Requirements for Relief Work and of the Mattapan Camp. Dr. John B. Hawes will speak of the classes at the Massachusetts General Hospital and Miss Ellen Emerson will tell of the work of the visitors. There will be other speakers. The afternoon session will be open to the public and it is hoped a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity of learning of the efforts for stamping out the great white plague.

The performance, "Our Polks," given by the members of the West Newton Educational Club, in the Old Unitarian church on Wednesday afternoon was a success in every respect and the clever acting, the correct enunciation as well as the appreciative audience assisted in making it so. Mrs. A. B. Munroe as Aunt Huldah was the "real thing." Miss Young as Becky, was a typical tomboy. Mrs. Potter as the inopportune small drinker was excellent. The trying men's parts were taken with rare skill. Mrs. M. E. Beardsley as the man-of-all-work made the hit of the afternoon. Mrs. W. B. Faith could give points to smokers and "sparkers." Mrs. I. T. Farnham carried out the part of the cranky old captain with spirit. Mrs. Earl as the Harvard man was a credit to the college. Miss Farnham as Silly York was a nice girl. Mrs. L. H. Jack and Mrs. St. Amant held the sympathy of the audience. The orchestra was exceptionally good. Miss Alice P. Patton, violin, Miss Jeanne Cude, cello, and Miss Ethel Hiltz, piano.
